

Section 6

Persons under correctional supervision

This section focuses on persons on probation and parole, inmates in local jails, and State and Federal prison populations. In addition, information is provided on prisoners under sentence of death and those executed.

Trend data showing the number of persons incarcerated or under community supervision in the United States is included. Information on persons under Federal and State probation supervision follows. Included are data on the number and rate of probationers under supervision for each State and the Federal Government, and detailed breakdowns presenting probation entries and exits for 1995 as well as characteristics of probationers. Figures for persons beginning and terminating Federal probation supervision as well as type of supervision also are included.

Trend data for persons in prison or jail are presented next, followed by detailed information on inmates in local jails, and State and Federal prisons. The data on local jails are from two Bureau of Justice Statistics-sponsored surveys: the comprehensive National Jail Census, conducted every 5 years, and the Annual Survey of Jails, which is conducted in noncensus years. Information provided includes: the number of jails and jail inmates, average daily population, jail capacity, and characteristics and conviction status of jail inmates. Data on number of jail inmates testing positive for HIV also are included. Trend tables are provided when available, allowing comparisons for the years 1983 through 1996.

Information on State and Federal prisoners is derived primarily from an annual Bureau of Justice Statistics-sponsored census of all State correctional departments and the Federal Bureau of Prisons. These tables present the number and rate of prisoners under State and Federal jurisdiction at yearend, admissions and releases during the year, type of release, and selected prisoner information, including race and ethnicity breakdowns. Trend data on the number and rate of sentenced prisoners, spanning the years 1925 to 1995 also are presented as is a table presenting prison population projections to the year 2002. Also included are data on prisoners over the age of 55, trends showing prisoners in custody per 1,000 UCR index crimes, and time served in prison by violent offenders.

A series of tables from the Federal Bureau of Prisons presents more detailed information on Federal prisoners. This portion of the section also includes new data from BJS on noncitizens serving Federal prison terms and juveniles confined in Federal prisons.

The next portion of the section presents data on sex offenders in State and Federal prisons and special facilities for these offenders. Data on military confinement facilities and the number of persons held in these facilities are provided. Furlough activity in State prisons and the number of escapes from State and Federal prisons also are shown.

A segment on post-release supervision focuses on conditional and unconditional releases from State and Federal correctional facilities, the number and rate of persons on parole, movement of the parole population, sex and race breakdowns for parolees, and persons released from parole supervision. Data on the number of parole violations resulting in reincarceration also are presented.

The final portion of this section presents data on inmate deaths, death sentences, and executions. Data on deaths from natural causes and suicide, and AIDS-related deaths are included, as are data on deaths and assaults among inmates and staff in State and Federal prisons. Tables on State and Federal prisoners testing positive for HIV and confirmed AIDS cases are presented. Detailed data on State and Federal prisoners sentenced to death, movement of prisoners on death row, and persons executed or otherwise removed from death row are provided; selected characteristics of these prisoners are included. In addition, methods of execution used in States authorizing the death penalty and trends showing executions back to 1930 are provided.

Note: Counts for probation, prison, and parole population are for December 31 of each year; jail population counts are for June 30 of each year. Counts of adults held in jail facilities for 1993-96 were estimated and rounded to the nearest 100. These data have been revised by the Source based on the most recently reported counts and will differ from previous editions of SOURCEBOOK. For information on methodology and explanatory notes, see Appendix 4.

^aA small number of individuals may have multiple correctional statuses; consequently, the total number of persons under correctional supervision is an overestimate.

^bIncludes only prisoners under custody.

^cThe jail population counts exclude persons supervised outside jail facilities.

Note: These data are from a survey of probation and parole agencies in the 50 States, the District of Columbia, and the Federal system conducted by the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics. Persons on probation are defined as those who have been placed under the supervision of a probation agency resulting from a court order. Due to variation in the structure of probation agencies and reporting methods, readers should consult the jurisdictional explanatory notes in Appendix 4 for detailed information. For information on methodology, definitions of terms, and jurisdictional explanatory notes, see Appendix 4.

Note: Persons under supervision of the Federal Probation System include persons placed on probation—either by U.S. District Courts, U.S. magistrates, or at the request of U.S. attorneys (pretrial diversion/deferred prosecution)—and Federal offenders released from confinement on parole or mandatory release. A Federal prisoner is eligible for mandatory release when the prisoner has served the full term of imprisonment less "good-time" allowances. If the offender has earned more than 180 days of "good-time" credit, supervision (as if on parole) is for that period in excess of 180 days. If "good-time" is less than 180 days, release occurs without supervision.

Data for 1975-90 represent persons who began supervision in the 12-month period prior to June 30 of the year noted. Beginning in 1991, data are reported for the Federal fiscal year, which is the 12-month period ending September 30. Some data have been revised by the Source and will differ from previous editions of SOURCEBOOK. The Canal Zone, Guam, and the Virgin Islands began reporting data in 1977.

^aPretrial diversion" was called "deferred prosecution" in years prior to 1977.

"Special parole" refers to a specified period of parole attached to a term of imprisonment at sentencing. This provision is applicable to violations of certain drug laws (see Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970, Public Law 91-513, Oct. 27, 1970, 84 Stat. 1260).

"Supervised release" refers to a specified term of post-release supervision enacted in November 1987 under the Federal Sentencing Guidelines.

Note: These data are from the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics' Federal Justice Statistics database. Sources of information include the Executive Office for U.S. Attorneys, the Administrative Office of the United States Courts (AOUSC), the U.S. Sentencing Commission, the Federal Bureau of Prisons, and the Pretrial Services Agency.

This table was created from the probation, parole, and supervision data files of the Federal Probation Supervision Information System maintained by the AOUSC. Only records with one or more terminations of active supervision in 1994 were selected. Each termination was counted separately. Technical violations and terminations for new crimes are shown only if supervision terminated with incarceration or removal from active supervision for reason of a violation. Total includes two offenders for whom offense category could not be determined and seven offenders for whom reason for termination could not be determined. Percentages are based on the 20,178 offenders whose reason for termination could be determined. For methodology and definitions of terms, see Appendix 13.

^aSupervision terminated with incarceration or removal to inactive status for violation of supervision conditions other than charges for new offenses.

^bSupervision terminated with incarceration or removal to inactive status after arrest for a "major" or "minor" offense.

^cMay include some non-violent offenses.

^dExcludes tax fraud.

^eExcludes transportation of stolen property.

^fExcludes fraudulent property offenses; includes destruction of property and trespass.

^gIncludes misdemeanors, petty offenses, and unknown offense level.

Note: Data for 1983, 1988, and 1993 are from the National Jail Census. Data for 1984-87, 1989-92, 1994-96 are from the Annual Survey of Jails taken during noncensus years. Both the censuses and the surveys are conducted for the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics by the U.S. Bureau of the Census. The data from the annual surveys are estimates and therefore are subject to sampling variation. A jail is defined as a locally administered confinement facility that holds inmates beyond arraignment, usually for more than 48 hours, and is administered and staffed by municipal or county employees. Excluded from the censuses and surveys were temporary holding facilities, such as physically separate drunk tanks and police lockups, and other holding facilities that did not hold persons after they were formally charged in court. Also excluded for all years were Connecticut, Delaware, Hawaii, Rhode Island, and Vermont because these States have integrated jail-prison systems. Alaska also was excluded as an integrated system; however, beginning in 1988, five locally operated jails in Alaska were included. For methodology and survey sampling procedures, see Appendix 16.

^aData for years prior to 1994 include an unknown number of persons who were under jail supervision but not confined. Data for 1994-96 are based on the number of inmates held in jail facilities.

^bBased on the average daily population for the year ending on the reference date of each census or survey. The average daily population is the sum of the number of inmates in a jail each day for a year, divided by 365.

^cJuveniles are persons defined by State statute as being under a certain age, usually 18, and subject initially to juvenile court authority even if tried as adults in criminal court. In 1994, the definition was changed to include all persons under age 18.

^dRated capacity is the number of beds or inmates assigned by a rating official to facilities within each jurisdiction.

^eThe number of inmates divided by rated capacity times 100. Prior to 1994, this ratio may include some inmates not in physical custody, but under the jurisdiction of a local jail, such as inmates on electronic monitoring, under house arrest, or in day reporting or other community supervision programs. For 1994-96, the ratio includes only those held in jail.

^fBeginning in 1993, detailed data were estimated and rounded to the nearest 100.

^gCounts for 1993 differ from previous counts because juveniles tried or awaiting trial as adults were included.

Note: See Note, table 6.13. Connecticut, Delaware, Hawaii, Rhode Island, and Vermont have integrated jail-prison systems and were excluded. For methodology and survey sampling procedures, see Appendix 16.

^cExcept for five locally operated jails, Alaska has an integrated jail-prison system.

^aMultiple facilities were reported as a single facility in Cook County, Illinois; Wayne County, Michigan; Orleans Parish, Louisiana; and Bexar County, Texas.

^bThe District of Columbia's jail population declined between 1983 and 1988 because the Occoquan complex was reclassified from a jail to a prison.

Note: See Note, table 6.13. The number of convicted inmates may be undercounted because some facility records do not distinguish inmates awaiting sentence (or other convicted persons) from unconvicted inmates. The 1989 Survey of Inmates in Local Jails indicated that 43% of the inmates were unconvicted and 57% were convicted. (Source, 1993-94, p. 5, Table 6.) The data for 1984-87, 1989-92, and 1995-96 are survey estimates and subject to sampling variation. Data for 1994 are not available. For methodology and survey sampling procedures, see Appendix 16.

^aData on conviction status by sex were reported for 97% of all adult inmates.

^bData on conviction status by sex were reported for 88.9% of all adult inmates in 1993 and 96.3% in 1995. Totals were estimated using known data and rounded to the nearest 100.

Note: Unlisted jurisdictions either had combined jail-prison systems or did not report prisoners held in local jails. For information on methodology, definitions of terms, and jurisdictional explanatory notes, see Appendix 4.

^aArizona, Massachusetts, Michigan, and Oklahoma did not include inmates in local jails in their jurisdiction count; however, the percentage of jurisdiction population was calculated for all persons serving sentences to incarceration, whether in State prison or in jail.

^bMichigan does not distinguish the sex of prison inmates housed in jails; therefore, all inmates are reported under males.

Note: This information was collected through a survey of the 50 States, the District of Columbia, and the Federal Bureau of Prisons conducted in October 1995. The data were collected through February 1996. Alabama, Arizona, Georgia, Maine, and Utah did not respond to the survey. Responding agencies generally reported prison population counts for a single day in the fourth quarter of 1995. Some States were unable to provide projections; in these cases, current populations or the latest projections available were carried over to the following year. The Source presents the information as submitted by the responding agencies. No attempt is made by the Source to verify the information received.

^cAdult inmates housed in Department of Corrections operated institutions and satellites.

^dNo population projections are computed by the Department of Corrections.

^eIn State facility(ies).

^fIncludes at-facility, outcount, and pre-parole inmates.

^gIncludes sentenced inmates and those awaiting trial.

^hIncludes Department of Corrections facilities only; does not include backup and locally sentenced felons.

ⁱIncludes probation/parole returns not tracked by gender.

^aDoes not include contract facilities, community corrections, fugitives, off-grounds, jail backlog, jails, and certain other categories of prisoners.

^bIncludes 406 men and 42 women on work release. Local facilities hold an additional 7,865 men and 886 women.

Sentenced prisoners in State and Federal institutions on December 31

United States, 1925-95

Note: Prison population data were compiled by a yearend census of prisoners held in custody in State and Federal institutions. Data for 1925 through 1939 include sentenced prisoners in State and Federal prisons and reformatories whether committed for felonies or misdemeanors. Data for 1940 through 1970 include all adult felons serving sentences in State and Federal institutions. Since 1971, the census has included all adults or youthful offenders sentenced to a State or Federal correctional institution with maximum sentences of over 1 year.

Beginning on Dec. 31, 1978, a distinction was made between prisoners "in custody" and prisoners "under jurisdiction." As defined in a 1978 report (U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics, Prisoners in State and Federal Institutions on December 31, 1978, NPS Bulletin SD-NPS-PSF-6 (Washington, DC: USGPO, 1980)), "in custody" refers to the direct physical control and responsibility for the body of a confined person. "Under jurisdiction" is defined as follows: A State or Federal prison system has jurisdiction over a person if it retains the legal power to incarcerate the person in one of its own prisons. Jurisdiction is not determined by the inmate's physical location; jurisdiction is determined by the legal authority to hold the inmate. Examples of prisoners under the jurisdiction of a given system, but not in its custody, are those housed in local jails, in other States, or in hospitals (including mental health facilities) outside the correctional system; inmates on work release, furlough, or bail; and State prisoners held in Federal prisons or vice versa.

United States, 1925-95

Number of sentenced prisoners per 100,000 residents

Note: See Note, figure 6.1. The rates for the period before 1980 are based on the civilian population. The civilian population represents the resident population less the armed forces stationed in the United States. Since 1980, the rates are based on the total resident population provided by the U.S. Bureau of the Census. For information on methodology and definitions of terms, see Appendix 4.

Note: See Notes, figures 6.1 and 6.4. Sentenced prisoners are defined as those serving sentences of more than 1 year. The data for the years 1975-77 represent sentenced prisoners in the custody of State and Federal institutions. The data for 1978-95 represent sentenced prisoners under the jurisdiction of State and Federal correctional authorities. Population estimates are provided by the U.S. Bureau of the Census. For information on methodology, definitions of terms, and jurisdictional explanatory notes, see Appendix 4.

^aData for inmates sentenced to 1 year or less may include some inmates for whom sentence length is unknown.

^bFigures include both jail and prison inmates; jails and prisons are combined in one system.

^cFigures include all inmates in Massachusetts custody, regardless of jurisdiction, as well as Massachusetts inmates housed in other States.

^dData for inmates sentenced to more than 1 year may include some inmates sentenced to 1 year or less. See the jurisdictional explanatory notes in Appendix 4.

^eData are custody rather than jurisdiction counts.

^fData for inmates sentenced to more than 1 year are estimated.

Note: See Note, figure 6.1. Figures for admissions and releases are for prisoners sentenced to more than 1 year. For information on methodology, definitions of terms, and jurisdictional explanatory notes, see Appendix 4.

^aFigures include both jail and prison inmates; jails and prisons are combined in one system.

^bFigures include all inmates in Massachusetts custody, regardless of jurisdiction, as well as Massachusetts inmates housed in other States.

^cSome or all data for the admissions and/or release categories are estimated.

^dIncludes inmates housed in local jails or other facilities.

^eUnconditional releases may include some releases to probation or appeal/bond.

^fNew court commitments may include a small number of other admissions.

^gData by sentence length may be slightly incorrect. See the jurisdictional explanatory notes in Appendix 4.

^hData are custody rather than jurisdiction counts.

^aFigures include both jail and prison inmates; jails and prisons are combined in one system.

^bFigures include all inmates in Massachusetts custody, regardless of jurisdiction, as well as Massachusetts inmates housed in other States.

^cInmates housed in local jails or other facilities for reasons other than prison crowding are reported under "not known."

^dData are custody rather than jurisdiction counts.

^eMichigan reported only Mexican-Americans as Hispanic prisoners and reported other Hispanic inmates as non-Hispanic.

^fData for Hispanic prisoners are estimated.

^gState does not distinguish Hispanic ethnicity of prisoners.

^hHispanic includes Puerto Ricans and persons with Hispanic surnames in "other" race category.

Note: Prisoners in custody data are from the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics, Historical Statistics on Prisoners in State and Federal Institutions, Yearend 1925-86; sentenced prisoners in custody of State or Federal correctional authorities, National Prisoner Statistics data series (NPS-1); and Prison and Jail Inmates at Midyear 1996. Counts of prisoners reflect the total number of sentenced adult felons in the physical custody of State and Federal institutions at year-end. The total number of prisoners under jurisdiction of State and Federal correctional authorities may be higher. Some data have been revised by the Source and may differ from previous editions of SOURCEBOOK.

^aBased on Federal Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Reporting Program data. Index crimes include the violent crimes of murder and nonnegligent manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery, and aggravated assault, and the property crimes of burglary, larceny-theft, and motor vehicle theft.

Note: These data are from the National Corrections Reporting Program (NCRP), sponsored by the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS). In order to update the estimates of sentence length and time served for violent offenses, BJS contacted each State corrections agency. NCRP participants were asked to verify estimates made from 1992 data and provide similar estimates for 1993 and 1994. States not participating in the NCRP were asked to generate estimates for all 3 years. Nevada did not provide data. Unlike data in previous NCRP reports, these data are based on aggregated data from each State. As a result, calculations for percent of sentence served differ.

"New court commitments" are persons entering prison directly from court and not from an unsuccessful period of community supervision. "First releases" are persons released for the first time on the current sentence. Violent offenses include crimes involving personal injury and theft of property or attempted theft by force or threat of force. Murder, manslaughter, rape, other sexual assault, robbery, assault, extortion, intimidation, criminal endangerment, child abuse, and other offenses involving confrontational force or threat of force are included. Some jurisdictions provided estimates and some jurisdiction's definitions of violent offenses varied from the above definition. Therefore, readers are encouraged to consult the original source for jurisdictional explanatory notes.

^aState and regional totals based on States reporting data in 1992 and 1994.

^bIncludes only admissions and releases governed solely by determinate sentences under the Sentencing Guidelines Act.

^cIncludes data on all admissions and releases.

Note: See Note, table 6.10. Prisoners and the length of their sentences are classified according to the offense associated with the longest single sentence actually imposed. Prisoners serving consecutive sentences may have total imposed sentences exceeding the longest single sentence length. Accordingly, the time actually served can exceed the longest single imposed sentence. "Time served" is the number of months from the prisoner's arrival into custody of the Bureau of Prisons until first release from prison, plus any jail time served and credited. The total reported for "all offenses" includes prisoners for whom offense category could not be determined. For methodology and definitions of terms, see Appendix 13.

^aMay include some non-violent offenses.

^bExcludes tax fraud.

^cExcludes transportation of stolen property.

^dExcludes fraudulent property offenses; includes destruction of property and trespass.

^eOffense not classifiable or not a violation of the U.S. Code.

Note: This information was collected through a survey mailed to the 50 States, the District of Columbia, and the Federal Bureau of Prisons. Arizona, Maine, Maryland, Montana, New Mexico, South Carolina, and Virginia did not respond to the survey. The survey did not specify which offenses were to be included as sex offenses, therefore each jurisdiction used its own definition of "sex offenders." Total prison population figures were reported by each jurisdiction. However, the survey specified no time frame for reporting population figures. As a result, population figures may differ from those presented elsewhere in SOURCEBOOK.

The Source presents the information as submitted by the responding agencies. No attempt is made by the Source to verify the information received.

^aMost jurisdictions provided either end of year 1995 or fourth quarter 1995 figures; some jurisdictions provided first quarter 1996 figures.

^bMost jurisdictions provided calendar year 1995 data or data for a 12-month period ending in 1995.

Note: This information was collected through a survey of the 50 States, the Federal Bureau of Prisons, and the District of Columbia. The survey was sent to departments of correction in November 1996; data were collected through February 1997. Alaska, Arizona, the District of Columbia, Nebraska, and the Federal Bureau of Prisons did not respond to the survey. There are no furlough programs in Colorado, Georgia, Illinois, and Missouri; Nevada has a furlough program, but it has not been used in 10 years. Information from Massachusetts about their furlough program was not available. A furlough is a temporary leave from a correctional facility. Readers should note that furlough programs vary widely across States. Some States include in their counts furloughs for community programming such as work or educational release and other treatment services. Some States reserve furloughs for emergency release to attend family funerals or obtain medical attention, and do not include community treatment-type releases in their counts. Others use furloughs as a reintegration tool to search for employment and other needs prior to release from prison. An individual inmate may be furloughed more than once to establish a prerelease plan or to obtain services. Therefore, comparisons across jurisdictions should be made with caution.

The Source presents the information as submitted by the responding agencies. No attempt is made by the Source to verify the information received.

Note: See Note, figure 6.1. Releases are of prisoners sentenced to more than 1 year. For information on methodology, definitions of terms, and jurisdictional explanatory notes, see Appendix 4.

^dSome or all data for release categories are estimated.

^eData by sentence length may be slightly incorrect. See the jurisdictional explanatory notes in Appendix 4.

^fData are custody rather than jurisdiction counts.

^aFigures include both jail and prison inmates; jails and prisons are combined in one system.

^bFigures include all inmates in Massachusetts custody, regardless of jurisdiction, as well as Massachusetts inmates housed in other States.

^cUnconditional releases may include some releases to probation or appeal/bond.

Note: See Note, table 6.3. Persons on parole are defined as offenders conditionally released to parole supervision, whether by parole board decision or by mandatory conditional release. Maine eliminated parole in 1976. Due to variation in the structure of parole agencies and reporting methods, readers should consult the jurisdictional explanatory notes in Appendix 4 for detailed information. For information on methodology, definitions of terms, and jurisdictional explanatory notes, see Appendix 4.

^aBecause of nonresponse or incomplete data, the population on Dec. 31, 1995 does not equal the population on Jan. 1, 1995, plus entries minus exits.

^bData do not include absconders.

^cThe Dec. 31, 1995 count is estimated.

Note: See Note, figure 6.1. Most, but not all, States reserve prison for offenders sentenced to 1 year or more. For information on methodology, definitions of terms, and jurisdictional explanatory notes, see Appendix 4.

^aFigures include both jail and prison inmates; jails and prisons are combined in one system.

^cSome or all data for the admission categories are estimated.

^dParole violators with no new sentences may include inmates from other admission categories.

^eOther conditional release violators with no new sentences include inmates from other admission categories.

^fData by sentence length may be slightly incorrect. See the jurisdictional explanatory notes in Appendix 4.

^gParole violators with new sentences may include inmates from other admission categories.

^hOther conditional release violators with new sentences include inmates from other admission categories.

ⁱData are custody rather than jurisdiction counts.

^jIdaho did not report the sex of parole violators with new sentences; therefore, females are included among the males.

Note: The U.S. Parole Commission conducts parole hearings for inmates currently in the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons and exercises jurisdiction over Federal parolees. These data refer only to defendants sentenced as adults. The "percent" column refers to inmates who were granted parole as a proportion of the total number of inmates considered for parole. The Source notes, "while the percentage granted parole has traditionally served as an indicator of paroling policy, it has several limitations. First, it is affected by changes in types of offenders entering the system. For example, the rate of parole grants for auto thieves (whose number entering the Federal system had declined over the years) may not be the same as for narcotics dealers (whose number has risen). Second, the measure may be affected by changes in sentencing practices" (Source, October 1, 1993 to September 30, 1994, p. 8). The data do not reflect decisions modified under the Commission's appellate or reopening provisions.

Some data have been revised by the Source and may differ from previous editions of SOURCEBOOK.

Note: These data were collected by the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics through the National Prisoner Statistics (NPS) program. The NPS program provides yearend data for the prisoner populations of the 50 States, the District of Columbia, and the Federal Bureau of Prisons. These data represent the custody population, which includes only those prisoners housed in a jurisdiction's facilities. The District of Columbia did not report either the number of HIV/AIDS cases for 1992-95 or AIDS-related deaths for 1995. Readers should note that HIV testing policies vary across jurisdictions. Some jurisdictions mandate testing of all prisoners, some provide for testing of a sample of prisoners, and others test prisoners under specified conditions. The reported number of cases of known HIV infection in part reflects each jurisdiction's testing policies. Some data for 1993 and 1994 have been revised by the Source and will differ from previous editions of SOURCEBOOK.

^aPercent calculations for the United States totals, the State totals, and the regional totals exclude prisoners in jurisdictions that did not report data for HIV/AIDS cases.

^aNo female deaths due to execution occurred during 1995.

^bFigures include both jail and prison inmates; jails and prisons are combined in one system.

^cFigures include all inmates in Massachusetts custody regardless of jurisdiction, as well as Massachusetts inmates housed in other States.

^dData are custody rather than jurisdiction counts.

^eIllness or natural causes includes deaths resulting from AIDS or other diseases related to HIV infection.

^fState does not distinguish cause of death, except by execution.

^gThe District of Columbia did not report the sex of prisoners who died. All deaths are reported under males.

Note: The NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. periodically collects data on persons on death row. As of Apr. 30, 1996, 38 States, the Federal Government, and the United States military had capital punishment laws; 34 States, the Federal Government, and the United States military had at least 1 prisoner under sentence of death. Between Jan. 1, 1973 and Apr. 30, 1996, an estimated 1,529 convictions or sentences have been reversed or vacated on grounds other than constitutional. Between Jan. 1, 1973 and May 30, 1990, an estimated 558 death sentences have been vacated as unconstitutional.

^aDetail will not add to total because prisoners sentenced to death in more than one State are listed in the respective State totals, but each is counted only once at the national level.

Note: Thirty-seven States and the Federal Government had death penalty statutes in effect on Dec. 31, 1994. New York reinstated capital punishment on Sept. 1, 1995, thus becoming the 38th State with the death penalty, but reported no one under sentence of death as of Dec. 31, 1995. Some data for yearend 1994 have been revised by the Source and will differ from previous editions of SOURCEBOOK. Data for "white" and "black" prisoners include Hispanics.

^aIncludes 9 deaths due to natural causes (3 in Alabama, and 1 each in Arizona, Illinois, Kentucky, North Carolina, Oklahoma, and Texas), 2 suicides (1 each in California and Nevada), and 2 inmates murdered by other inmates (1 each in Florida and Texas).

^bTotals include persons of other races.

^cExcludes persons held under Armed Forces jurisdiction with a military death sentence for murder.

^dOne inmate who was previously in the custody of Nevada has been transferred to California where he is being held under a separate sentence of death.

Note: See Note, table 6.62. Figures for 1974-81 have been revised from those reported in Capital Punishment 1981, NPS Bulletin SD-NPS-CP-10, December 1982. In addition, as a result of a major procedural change regarding dispositions, the number of dispositions other than execution and the number of persons under sentence of death in 1976 and subsequent years are not strictly comparable to corresponding data for earlier years. For information on methodology, definitions of terms, and explanatory notes, see Appendix 4.

^aDispositions of death sentences other than by execution included dismissal of indictment, reversal of judgment, commutation, resentencing, order of a new trial, and death.

^cOne inmate who was previously housed in the custody of Nevada had been transferred to California where he is being held under a separate sentence of death.

^aDispositions of death sentences other than by execution include dismissal of indictment, reversal of judgment, commutation, resentencing, order of a new trial, and death. Two American Indians, one each in Oklahoma and Montana, had their sentences overturned by an appellate court and were awaiting resentencing. One Asian inmate in Nevada committed suicide while on death row.

^bFour Asians were received from court; 1 Asian was executed; 2 American Indians and 1 Asian had their death sentences removed; 22 American Indians, 19 Asians, and 8 inmates of unspecified race were under a sentence of death at yearend.

Note: See Note, table 6.62. This table identifies the 1995 yearend status of persons removed from death row during the year. For information on methodology, definitions of terms, and explanatory notes, see Appendix 4.

^aIncludes one man whose sentence was overturned and one whose sentence and conviction were overturned. No information on the current status of these men was available at the time of data collection.

^bIncludes one man whose sentence was overturned. No further action was taken during 1995.

Note: See Note, table 6.62. This table identifies the legal or other event effectively terminating the death sentence. For information on methodology, definitions of terms, and explanatory notes, see Appendix 4.

^aTotal includes one inmate in Mississippi who was removed from under sentence of death after a court partially struck a statute under which he was convicted and sentenced. He was resentenced to life in prison.

^bOne inmate died of natural causes in each of the following States: Arizona, Illinois, Kentucky, North Carolina, Oklahoma, and Texas; three inmates died of natural causes in Alabama. One inmate each in California and Nevada committed suicide. One inmate each in Florida and Texas were killed by other inmates.

^cCommutation changes sentences from death to life imprisonment or a term of years.

^dFurther legal proceedings may have followed the vacating of sentences and of convictions and may have resulted in new sentences of death.

Note: See Note, table 6.62.

^aIn 1972, the U.S. Supreme Court held that imposing and carrying out the death penalty violated the U.S. Constitution. In 1976, the Court held that "the punishment of death does not invariably violate the Constitution," thus paving the way for future death sentences and executions.

^bState not authorizing the death penalty as of Dec. 31, 1995.

Note: In three States, Maine, Minnesota, and Wisconsin, there was no death penalty for the entire period covered by the table. Alaska and Hawaii have not had the death penalty since 1960, when they were first included as States. For other States, the death penalty may have been abolished or declared unconstitutional, and/or subsequently reinstated. In these cases, an X will appear to indicate years when the death penalty was not in effect. For information on methodology, definitions of terms, and explanatory notes, see Appendix 4.

^aAs States, Alaska and Hawaii are included in the series beginning Jan. 1, 1960.

Note: See Note, table 6.63. The method of execution of Federal prisoners is lethal injection, pursuant to 28 CFR, Part 26. For offenses under the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, the method is that of the State in which the conviction took place, pursuant to 18 USC 3596.

^a Authorizes two methods of execution.

^b Arizona authorizes lethal injection for persons whose capital sentence was received after Nov. 15, 1992; for those who were sentenced before that date, the condemned prisoner may select lethal injection or lethal gas.

^c Delaware authorizes lethal injection for those whose capital offense occurred after June 13, 1986; for those whose offense occurred before that date, the condemned prisoner may select lethal injection or hanging.

^d Arkansas authorizes lethal injection for those whose capital offense occurred after July 4, 1983; for those whose offense occurred before that date, the condemned prisoner may select lethal injection or electrocution.

^e Use of lethal gas currently is prohibited in California pending a legal challenge in Federal court.

^f Oklahoma authorizes electrocution if lethal injection is ever held unconstitutional and firing squad if both lethal injection and electrocution are held unconstitutional.

^g Maryland authorizes lethal injection for all condemned prisoners as of Mar. 25, 1994. One prisoner, convicted prior to that date, has selected lethal gas for method of execution.

^h New Hampshire authorizes hanging only if lethal injection cannot be given.

ⁱ Mississippi authorizes lethal injection for those convicted after July 1, 1984; execution of those convicted prior to that date is to be carried out with lethal gas.

^j Wyoming authorizes lethal gas if lethal injection is ever held unconstitutional.

Correctional Populations in the United States Survey methodology, definitions of terms, and jurisdictional explanatory notes

Note: The following information has been excerpted from U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics, Correctional Populations in the United States, 1995, NCJ-163916 (Washington, DC: U.S. Department of Justice, 1997). Non-substantive editorial adaptations have been made.

Survey methodology for prisoner data

These data are based on yearend 1994 and 1995 inmate counts and on enumerations of prisoner transactions during these calendar years. As in past years, these data were collected with a standard questionnaire transmitted to the appropriate State authorities and the Federal Bureau of Prisons. The data were collected for the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics by the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

In each jurisdiction, the questionnaire was completed by a central agency reporting for institutions within the correctional system. This procedure was also used by the Federal Bureau of Prisons in supplying data on Federal institutions. Because the information was derived from a complete enumeration rather than a survey, the statistical data are not affected by sampling error. Response errors were held to a minimum by means of a systematic telephone followup and, where necessary, other control procedures. Thus, the yearend counts are generally considered reliable. Because of the absence of standardized administrative and record keeping practices from State to State, the data for admissions and releases are not always entirely comparable across jurisdictions.

Many States revise the yearend number reported for the previous year. Those revisions are made in the total, not the detail. For example, the number of blacks, whites, and members of other races for 1994 were not changed by a State in 1995 to equal its revised 1994 total.

National Prisoner Statistics (NPS) category definitions

Jurisdiction population, Dec.

31--Includes all inmates under jurisdiction of State correctional authorities on Dec. 31, 1994 and 1995 regardless of location. Does not include other jurisdictions' inmates (for example, inmates from other States, pretrial detainees) merely housed in prisons.

Custody population, Dec. 31--

Includes all inmates in the State's custody, that is, housed in State correctional facilities on Dec. 31, 1994 and 1995. Does not include State inmates housed outside State prison facilities; does include other jurisdictions' inmates (for example, inmates from other States, the courts, local jails) housed in the State's facilities.

Overcrowding, Dec. 31--Includes all State prison inmates housed in local jails on Dec. 31, 1994 and 1995 and as a direct result of State prison overcrowding. Does not include State prison inmates held in local jails for other reasons (for example, work release, court appearance, etc.).

Admissions

New court commitments--Includes all inmates who were admitted with new sentences, that is, these inmates were not readmitted for any sentences for which they had already served some prison time. This category includes probation violators entering prison for the first time on the probated offenses. Does not include parole violators with new sentences.

Parole violators with new sentences--Includes all parolees returned with new sentences.

Other conditional release violators with new sentences--Includes all individuals on conditional release (other than parole) who are returned with new sentences, for example, returns from supervised mandatory release, from shock probation, etc.

Parole violators only, no new sentences--Includes all parolees returned only for formal revocations of parole that were not accompanied by new sentences. If the parole was not formally revoked, that is, the parolee was held only temporarily pending a hearing, no admission occurred for NPS purposes.

Other conditional release violators only, no new sentences--Same as above, substituting conditional release violator for parole violator.

Transfers from other jurisdictions--Includes all inmates transferred to a State's jurisdiction to continue sentences already in force. Does not include admissions if State does not acquire jurisdiction. Does not include movements from prison to prison within State.

Absent without leave (AWOL) returns, with or without sentences--Includes all returns from AWOL, that is, failures to return from authorized temporary absences such as work furlough, study release, mercy furlough, or other authorized temporary absence.

Escapee returns, with or without new sentences--Includes all returns from escape, that is, unlawful departures from a State correctional facility or from the custody of State correctional personnel.

Returns from appeal/bond--Includes all inmates reinstated to correctional jurisdiction from long-term jurisdictional absences on appeal or bond. Does not include returns from short-term movements (less than 30 days) to court (that is, where the State retains jurisdiction).

Other admissions--Includes all other admissions not covered by the above categories.

Releases

Unconditional--An unconditional release occurs only if the released inmate cannot be imprisoned for any sentence for which he/she was in prison.

Expirations of sentence--Includes all inmates whose maximum court sentences minus credits have been served.

Commutations--Includes all inmates whose maximum sentences have been changed (lowered) to time served to allow immediate unconditional release.

Other unconditional releases--Includes all other unconditional releases not covered by the above categories.

Conditional--A conditional release occurs if the released inmate, upon violating the conditions of release, can be imprisoned again for any of the sentences for which he/she was in prison.

Probations--Includes all inmates who have been placed under probation supervision and conditionally released; includes all shock probation (split sentence) releases.

Supervised mandatory releases--Includes all inmates who must, by law, be conditionally released. This type of release may also be called mandatory conditional release.

Paroles--Includes all inmates conditionally released to parole.

Other conditional releases--Includes all other conditional releases not covered by the above categories.

Death:

Executions--Self-explanatory.
Acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS)--The immediate cause of death in AIDS mortalities may be Pneumocystis Carinii Pneumonia, Kaposi's Sarcoma, or other diseases related to HIV infection.

Illness/natural causes--Self-explanatory. AIDS-related deaths not included in this category.

Suicides--Self-explanatory.
Accidental injury to self--Includes all inmates who accidentally cause their own deaths (for example, a fall from a ladder, mishandling electrical equipment).

Death caused by another person--Includes all inmates whose deaths were caused accidentally or intentionally by another inmate or prison personnel.

Other deaths--Includes all other deaths not covered by the above categories.

Other releases:

Absent without leave (AWOL)--Includes all failures to return from an authorized temporary absence such as work furlough, study release, mercy furlough, or other authorized temporary absence.

Escapes from confinement--Includes all unlawful departures from a State correctional facility or from the custody of State correctional personnel.

Transfers to other jurisdictions--Includes all inmates who were transferred from one State's jurisdiction to another to continue sentences already in force. Does not include the release if State does not relinquish jurisdiction. Does not include movements from prison to prison within State.

Releases to appeal/bond--Includes all inmates released from correctional jurisdiction to long-term jurisdictional absences on appeal or bond. Does not include short-term movements (less than 30 days) to court (that is, where the State correctional system retains jurisdiction).

Other releases--Includes all other releases not covered by the above categories.

Race

Classification by race often depends on the reporting program and the State. A few States reported two categories: white and nonwhite. A few others categorized Hispanic offenders as belonging to "Other race." The number of persons with certain racial backgrounds were sometimes estimated.

White--A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, North Africa, or the Middle East.

Black--A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.

American Indian or Alaska Native--A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North America, who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community recognition.

Asian or Pacific Islander--A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, the Indian Subcontinent, or the Pacific Islands. This area includes, for example, China, India, Japan, Korea, the Philippine Islands, and Samoa.

Other--Any other race not covered by the above categories.

Not known--Any inmate whose racial origin is unknown.

Ethnic origin

A person of Hispanic origin may be of any race; however, a few States treat the ethnic category as a racial one. Reporting officials usually rely on self-definition, but some States classify according to surname.

Hispanic--A person of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central or South American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.

Not Hispanic--A person not covered by the above category.

Not known--Any inmate whose ethnic origin is unknown.

Prisoners explanatory notes by jurisdiction

Federal prisons--Population, admissions, and releases: Movement data were provided; however, when admissions are added to the January 1 population and releases are subtracted, the total does not equal the Dec. 31, 1995, population. Inmates with 1 year or less sentence: Jurisdiction and custody counts include inmates whose sentence length is unknown.

Alabama--Other conditional release violators with new sentences: Includes inmates returned from supervised release under Alabama Act 754 and split sentence/probation with and without new sentences. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Other admissions: Unspecified in the Alabama data system. Cause of death: Can specify only executions.

Alaska--Population, admissions, and releases: Includes some inmates whose movements were unreported. Total inmate population: Jurisdiction and custody counts include inmates in prisons and jails, which form an integrated system in Alaska. Other releases, unconditional and conditional: Court-ordered releases. Other releases: Includes extraditions to Federal jurisdiction. Other race: Alaska's "Hispanic" race category.

Arizona--Population, admissions and releases: Based on custody data. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. Other conditional releases: Includes supervised early releases, provisional releases, supervised work furloughs, earned credit releases, and releases to the home arrest program. Cause of death: Pending investigation at time of data collection. Other releases: Includes early releases to detainer, persons returned to prison pending revocation hearing where no revocation occurred, and persons who were returned to supervision. Total jurisdiction population: Excludes 322 males housed in local jails solely to ease prison crowding.

Arkansas--Arkansas revised its Dec. 31, 1994, jurisdiction counts. Other admissions: Returns from the Department of Community Punishment, a separate agency. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. Other conditional releases: Persons released under the provisions of Arkansas' Acts 378 and 814 and Boot Camp to some form of supervision. Jurisdiction population, inmates with 1 year or less sentence: Includes 345 males being held in the county jail awaiting transfer to the Department of Corrections for whom the sentence is unknown. Custody population, inmates with 1 year or less sentence: Includes 387 males being held in the county jail awaiting transfer to Department of Corrections for whom the sentence is unknown. Other race: Includes Cuban inmates.

California--California revised Dec. 31, 1995, data to include jurisdiction counts. State previously reported only custody counts. Other conditional release violators with new sentences: May include some parole violators and returns from supervised mandatory releases with new sentences. Other conditional release violators only, no new sentences: May include some parole violators without new sentences and some supervised mandatory or parole releases returned pending a revocation hearing. Other admissions: Returns from appeal/bond reported in "Other admissions" category. Unconditional releases, expirations of sentence: Includes some court-ordered releases. Conditional releases, supervised mandatory releases: Includes some court-ordered releases and paroles. Cause of death: Not specified or pending an autopsy. Other releases: Contains the net difference between total admissions and the Dec. 31, 1995, jurisdiction population. These are most likely temporary releases to courts, jail, and hospitals, who have not been returned to prison as of Dec. 31, 1995. Jurisdiction population, unsentenced inmates: Includes civil narcotic addict commitments and county diagnostic cases. Other race and not known Hispanic origin: Includes some Asian, Pacific Islander, and Hispanic inmates admitted to California prisons prior to January 1990 (when these categories were added to the California computer system). Also includes the California "Hispanic/Mexican" category.

Colorado--Sentencing information: Reported populations with sentences of more than 1 year include a small number of inmates with a maximum sentence of 1 year or less. Transfers from other jurisdictions: Includes admissions of inmates through interstate compacts. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Numbers are estimates. Other releases: Court-ordered releases not classified as conditional or unconditional. State inmates housed in other facilities to ease overcrowding: Includes 325 males housed in a facility owned and operated by the County of Bent; and 219 males and 5 females housed in county correctional facilities. Race and Hispanic origin: Numbers are estimates.

Connecticut--Connecticut revised its Dec. 31, 1994, jurisdiction population counts. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered discharges and inadvertent releases (release coding errors). Other conditional releases: Release to home jurisdiction, community releases, and an undetermined number of unknown release types. Total inmate population: Jurisdiction and custody counts include inmates in prisons and jails, which form an integrated system. Other race: The Connecticut "Hispanic" category.

Delaware--Sentencing information, partially suspended sentences: Prisoners with partially suspended sentences (part served in prison, part served under probation) are included with the "Inmates with over 1 year maximum sentence" only when the prison portion of the sentence exceeded 12 months. As a result, the population and movement counts of "Inmates with over 1 year maximum sentence" are understated, and the counts of "Inmates with 1 year or less maximum sentence" are overstated. Parole and other conditional release violators with new sentences: Includes violators with and without new sentences. Other admissions and releases: Includes admissions from and releases to State and local hospitals, inmates serving weekend sentences, and inmates who were changed from jail sentences of less than 1 year to prison sentences of more than 1 year. Unconditional releases, expirations of sentence: Includes some releases to probation. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. Total inmate population: Jurisdiction and custody counts include inmates in prisons and jails, which form an integrated system. Other race: Includes Puerto Rican and Mexican prisoners.

District of Columbia--Sentencing information, partially suspended sentences: Prisoners with partially suspended sentences (part served in prison, part served under probation) are included with the "Inmates with over 1 year maximum sentence" only when the prison portion of the sentence exceeded 12 months. As a result, the population and movement counts of "Inmates with over 1 year maximum sentence" are understated, and the counts of "Inmates with 1 year or less maximum sentence" are overstated.

Sentencing information, short sentences: An undetermined number of inmates housed in neither the District of Columbia jail nor the Detention Center and having either no sentence or a minimum sentence of 1 year or less are included in the movement and population counts of inmates with more than 1 year maximum sentences. As a result, the population and movement counts of inmates with maximum sentences of more than 1 year are overstated, and the counts of inmates with 1 year or less maximum sentence are understated. Transfers from and to other jurisdictions: Includes transfers from and to mental hospitals and other State and Federal facilities. Unconditional releases, expirations of sentence: Includes some inmates with partially suspended sentences and releases to probation. Number of deaths: All deaths are reported under "males." As a result, total male releases are slightly over counted and female releases are slightly undercounted. Cause of death: Unknown at time of data collection. Total jurisdiction population: Includes male and female DC code violators housed in Federal Bureau of Prisons facilities and male inmates housed in other State facilities. Of these inmates, an undetermined number are being housed solely to ease prison overcrowding. Unsentenced inmate populations: Jurisdiction and custody counts include unsentenced inmates held in the District jail or Detention Center. Total inmate population: Jurisdiction and custody counts include inmates in prisons and jails, which form an integrated system in the District of Columbia.

Florida--Population, admissions, and releases counts: Based on custody data. Other conditional release violators with new sentences: Includes violators of control releases, provisional releases, conditional releases, and supervised community releases with new sentences. Other conditional release violators without new sentences: Includes violators of control releases, provisional releases, conditional releases, and supervised community releases with new sentences. Transfers from other jurisdictions: Includes admissions through interstate compact agreements with and without new sentences. Other admissions: Contains the net difference between total admissions and the release movements not classified in other categories. Other unconditional releases: Includes vacated sentences and control releases without supervision. Other conditional releases: Includes control releases with supervision, conditional medical releases, conditional releases, supervised community releases, and reinstatement to control releases. Transfers to other jurisdictions: Includes interstate transfers (inmates who have been sentenced under Florida's jurisdiction but serve their sentence in another State or Federal prison).

Georgia--Population, admissions, and releases: Based on custody data. Parole violators with new sentences: May include a small number of other conditional release violators with new sentences. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Other unconditional releases: Includes one inmate who paid a fine. Other conditional releases: Consists of special and supervised reprieves controlled by the Georgia Parole Board. Cause of death: Unknown. Jurisdiction population: Excludes inmates awaiting pick-up from local jails. Other race: Includes inmates who identify racial categories other than those specified.

Hawaii--Category estimates: Jurisdiction and custody counts are actual counts. Admissions, releases, race, and Hispanic origin are estimated based on information from Hawaii's Correctional Information System (CIS). Other unconditional releases: Administrative discharges and emergency releases. Other conditional releases: Type of release unknown at the time of data collection. Total inmate population: Jurisdiction and custody counts include inmates in prisons and jails, which form an integrated system in Hawaii. Other race: Includes "Puerto Ricans," prisoners of "Other Hispanic" origin, and "Other" race categories (inmates who identified more than one racial group). Prisoners of part-Hawaiian ancestry are counted as "Asians/Pacific Islanders." Hispanic origin: The Hawaii "Puerto Rican" category and individuals of the Hawaii "Other" race category with Spanish surnames.

Idaho--Parole violators with new sentences: Count unavailable by gender. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Other admissions: Adjustment residuals to balance the movement data not reported in other categories with the Dec. 31, 1995 population. Race and Hispanic origin: Numbers are estimates.

Illinois--Population, admissions, and releases: Based on custody data. Sentencing information: Inmates with sentences of more than 1 year include some inmates with maximum sentences of 1 year. Other conditional release violators with new sentences: Includes some parole violators with new sentences. Other conditional release violators only, no new sentences: Includes some parole violators without new sentences. Escapees: Illinois now reports the movement of escapees by using the Offender Tracking System. All inmates in Community Correctional Centers and Electronic Detention Centers are now included in the counts, which in part accounts for the increase in the number of escapes and returns from escape. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. Cause of death: Unknown at time of data collection. Other admissions and releases: Contains the net difference between long-term admissions and release movements not reported in other categories (transfers, writs, and medical furloughs) to balance the December 31 population. The category also includes an undetermined number of transfers to other jurisdictions. Other race: The Illinois "Hispanic" category.

Indiana--New court commitments: Includes probation violators with and without new sentences. Other unconditional releases: Sentences terminated based on Parole Board decisions.

Iowa--Population, admissions, and releases: Based on custody data. Parole violators only, no new sentences: Includes parolees remanded to prison prior to a formal revocation hearing. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. Conditional releases, paroles: Includes persons returned to parole following revocation hearings and persons released to parole by Conditional Commutation Orders. Other admissions and releases: Inmates held for safekeeping. Other conditional releases: Releases to work release programs. Other race: The Iowa "Hispanic" category.

Kansas--New court commitments: May include some returns from appeal/bond and a small number of probation violators, both with and without new sentences, who may have previously spent time in prison. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Other admissions: Type unknown at time of data collection. Other conditional releases: Conditional releases to supervision, similar to that for parole. Executions: Kansas legalized capital punishment in 1995. Therefore, "Executions" is no longer reported as "Not applicable." Cause of death: Unknown.

Kentucky--Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Other admissions: Court-ordered returns to prison. Other releases: Includes court-ordered releases not identifiable as conditional or unconditional. Other race: Includes inmates whose race cannot be classified in the specified categories.

Louisiana--Population, admissions, and releases: Movement and population counts are now based on jurisdiction data. Louisiana previously reported only custody data. Sentencing information: Jurisdiction and custody counts of inmates with a maximum sentence of more than 1 year and with 1 year or less maximum sentence are not comparable to 1992 and previously reported data. Prior to 1993, reported inmates with 1 year or less sentences were actually parole revocations with remaining sentences equal to 1 year or less. The original sentences for these persons were greater than 1 year, but when they returned from parole the remaining time on their sentences had decreased to 1 year or less. Since persons with sentences of 1 year or less are not sentenced to Louisiana prisons, all inmates are now reported as having a maximum sentence greater than or equal to 1 year. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Other admissions: Admissions to treatment programs from Probation and Parole Districts. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered and good-time releases. Cause of death: Can specify only for executions. Other releases: Includes inmates released in error. Total custody population: Louisiana revised its Dec. 31, 1994 custody counts. American Indians or Alaska Natives: American Indians only. Asian or Pacific Islanders: Chinese and Japanese only. Other race: Includes Latins and all other persons whose race is unspecified. Hispanic origin: Not included in the Louisiana data system.

Maine--Other conditional release violators with new sentences: Probation violators with new sentences. Other conditional release violators only, no new sentences: Probation violators with no new sentences. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Other unconditional releases: Inmates released directly from prison to the community. Other releases: Releases to detainer or warrants and inmates whose release requires victim notifications.

Maryland--Category estimates: The movement and population totals are actual counts. Categories for admissions and releases are estimated by applying percentages from automated data to the totals that are made manually. The automated data system counts only inmates with maximum sentences of more than 1 year, while the detailed categories in the manual data include inmates with maximum sentences of 1 year or less. New court commitments: May include a small number of returns from appeal/bond. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Other admissions: Interstate compact admissions. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. May also include a small number of releases to appeal/bond. Other conditional releases: Inmates paroled from the Patuxent Institution to work release. Other releases: Includes 7 to 10 interstate compact releases as well as releases of new admissions that had been double counted with admissions data.

Massachusetts--Massachusetts revised its 1994 population counts. Population, admissions, and releases: Movement and population counts are based on jurisdiction and custody data. These figures include all inmates in Massachusetts custody, including a limited number of county, Federal and other States' inmates under jurisdiction of another authority, as well as Massachusetts inmates housed in other States. Total inmate population: Excludes 662 males housed in local facilities and 393 males held in Federal and other State facilities solely to ease prison crowding. Also includes 1,275 males housed in local, State, and Federal facilities not due to prison crowding. Parole violators only, no new sentences: Includes some parole violators with new sentences, other conditional release violators with and without new sentences, and a small number of returns from appeal/bond. Category estimates: The totals for admissions and releases are actual; the categories are estimates. Unconditional releases, expirations of sentence: Includes some releases to probation. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases and a small number of releases to appeal/bond. Other race: Includes Hispanic inmates whose race is not specified; also includes 1,275 males housed in local, State, or Federal facilities not due to prison crowding, but excludes 662 males housed in local facilities and 393 males held in Federal and other State facilities solely to ease prison crowding. Unknown ethnicity: Includes 1,275 males housed in local, State, and Federal facilities, not due specifically to prison crowding, but excludes 662 males housed in local facilities and 393 males held in Federal and other State facilities solely to ease prison crowding.

Michigan--Michigan revised its Dec. 31, 1994 jurisdiction population counts because of procedural improvements in tracking and reporting. Population, admissions, and releases: Based on custody data. Transfers from and to other jurisdictions: Transfers from and to mental hospitals and facilities of the Federal Government and other States. Escapees: Consists mainly of zero tolerance walkaways from community residential programs. Other admissions: Returns from county jail and from parole status. Returns from and releases to appeal/bond: Contains the net difference of all movements from and to the courts. Cause of death, illnesses/natural causes: Includes unspecified type of deaths, including deaths resulting from AIDS- or HIV-related diseases. Other releases: Includes inmates temporarily housed at a county jail and returns to parole status. Total jurisdiction population: Excludes 393 males housed in local jails solely to ease overcrowding. Population housed in jails: All inmates are reported as males. Other race: Includes Mexican Americans and all other persons whose race is unspecified. Hispanic origin: Mexican Americans only.

Minnesota--Other conditional release violators with new sentences: Includes supervised mandatory release violators and work release violators with new sentences. Other conditional release violators only, no new sentences: Includes supervised mandatory release violators and work release violators with no new sentences. Transfers, escapees, AWOL prisoners, and admissions/returns from appeal/bond: Categories are not considered releases and are not valid in the Minnesota data system. Other unconditional releases: Includes inmates discharged by court or executive orders. May include some commutations and overturned convictions. Other conditional releases: Work releases and intensive community supervision. Asian/Pacific Islanders: Includes persons with Asian surnames. Other race: Includes 240 Hispanic males and 10 Hispanic females because Minnesota classifies "Hispanic" as a race. Also includes 21 males reported in the Minnesota "Other" race category.

Mississippi--New court commitments: Includes some probation violators with and without new sentences. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Other admissions: Includes 33 males and 3 females awaiting revocation hearing and returns from appeal/bond, as well as 160 males and 28 females whose admission category was unavailable at the time of data collection. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. Other releases: Inmates returned to community supervision following a revocation hearing where no revocation occurred. Also includes releases to appeal/bond. Race: Numbers are estimates. Other race: The Mississippi "Hispanic" category.

Missouri--AWOL returns, with and without new sentences: Include some returns of walkaways from community release centers previously included in escape returns, with or without new sentences. Other admissions: Includes inmates returned from erroneous releases, persons whose commitment was reinstated, and parole board holdovers (offenders arrested by local authorities and returned to prison, instead of to the local jail as customary). Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. Other conditional releases: Conditional release to custody/detainer, administrative parole, and credit time releases. Causes of death: Unknown. AWOL from confinement: Walkaways from community release centers residential treatment facilities, previously included in escapes from confinement. Other releases: Erroneous releases.

Montana--Population, movement and releases: Numbers are estimates based on fiscal year data (July 1, 1994 to June 30, 1995). Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. Escapees/AWOL releases/admissions: Montana does not track escapees and AWOL prisoners as admissions and releases. Jurisdiction and custody population: Includes some inmates from other jurisdictions whom Montana housed. Race, white: The Montana "Hispanic" category.

Nebraska--Parole violators only, no new sentences: Includes some parole violators with new sentences. Other unconditional releases: Includes sentences vacated by the court. A court action reversed or overturned the sentences or dismissed the charges. Race and ethnicity: Numbers are estimates.

Nevada--Total admissions and releases: May include some inmates with a 1 year sentence. New court commitments: May include a very small number of returns from appeal/bond. Parole violators only, no new sentences: Includes some parole violators with and without new sentences. Transfers from other jurisdictions: These inmates are considered part of Nevada's out-count and are not counted as admissions. Other admissions: Includes Nevada's "not physically received" inmates who are serving concurrent sentences elsewhere. Inmates are counted as admissions when Nevada begins to monitor their sentences and includes them in their out-count population. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. Race: Numbers are estimates. Other race: Includes persons of Hispanic and Cuban origin and all other persons whose race is unspecified.

New Hampshire--Jurisdiction counts: In 1995 New Hampshire began reporting computer generated counts. Therefore, the January 1, 1995 population counts differ from the December 31, 1994 counts. New court commitments: Includes some returns from appeal/bond. May also include some other conditional release violators with and without new sentences. Parole violators only, no new sentences: Includes parole violators with a new sentence. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases with no supervision. Other releases: Court-ordered releases not identifiable as unconditional or conditional.

New Jersey--Sentencing information: Inmates with sentences of more than 1 year include some inmates with a sentence equal to 1 year. New court commitments: May include some transfers from other jurisdictions and returns from appeal/bond. Other conditional release violators only, no new sentences: Prisoners returned (some with new sentences) from the Intensive Supervision Program, an experimental program operated by the Administrative Office of Courts. Other conditional releases: Prisoners released to the Intensive Supervision Program. Causes of death: Unknown at time of data collection. Other race: "Hispanic" inmates who are not classified as "white" or "black." Unknown race/ethnicity: Inmates for whom the racial category was unspecified.

New Mexico--Parole violators only, no new sentences: Includes parole violators with and without additional sentences. Other conditional release violators only, no new sentences: Includes violators both with and without new sentences. Also includes returns from community corrections programs. Other conditional releases: Releases to community corrections programs. Cause of death: Can specify only executions.

New York--New court commitments: Includes parole and other conditional release violators with new sentences. Transfers from other jurisdictions: Includes 520 males and 49 females previously under the jurisdiction of the Department of Mental Hygiene for psychiatric treatment. Other admissions: Includes 26 males returned from conditional parole deportation to the custody of the U.S. Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization Services, as well as 23 males and 2 females returned following erroneous release. Causes of death: Unknown at time of data collection. Transfers to other jurisdictions: Includes 580 males and 50 females transferred to the jurisdiction of the Department of Mental Hygiene for psychiatric treatment. Other releases: Include erroneous releases of 6 males and 9 females.

North Carolina--Sentencing information, partially suspended sentences: Prisoners with partially suspended sentences (part served in prison, part served under probation) are included with the "Inmates with over 1 year maximum sentence" only when the prison portion of the sentence exceeded 12 months. As a result, the population and movement counts of "Inmates with over 1 year maximum sentence" are understated, and the counts of "Inmates with 1 year or less maximum sentence" are overstated. Category estimates, sentencing: Population totals are actual; populations by sentence length are estimates. Parole violators with new sentences: Includes some parole violators without new sentences and some conditional release violators with and without new sentences. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Other admissions: Consists of an adjustment residual to balance movement data with the December 31 population. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. Other conditional releases: Includes some supervised mandatory releases. Hispanic origin: Not included in the North Carolina data system.

North Dakota--Parole violators only, no new sentences: Includes some parole violators with new sentences. Other conditional release violators only, no new sentences: Includes some conditional release violators with new sentences. Other conditional releases: Court-ordered releases.

Ohio--Sentencing information: Inmates with maximum sentences of more than 1 year include some inmates with sentences of 1 year or less. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: All unauthorized absences are classified as escapes. Other unconditional releases: Sentences vacated by courts. Other conditional releases: Furloughs and other conditional releases.

Oklahoma--Sentencing information: Inmates with maximum sentences of more than 1 year includes some inmates with sentences of 1 year or less. New court commitments: Includes some conditional release violators with and without new sentences. Other unconditional releases: Legislative CAP releases (Senate Bill 445). Other conditional releases: Conditional commutations and CAP releases to probation supervision. Other deaths: Includes one death under investigation. Total jurisdiction population: Excludes 257 males and 34 females housed in local jails solely to ease prison crowding. Other race: Includes "Other" races not specified. Unknown race: Includes Hispanic inmates.

Oregon--Transfers from and to other jurisdictions: Oregon cannot distinguish transfers from other admissions or release categories. Transfers may be included in any admissions or release category. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: All unauthorized absences are classified as escapes. Other admissions: Type of admission unknown at time of data collection. Other unconditional releases: Type of unconditional release unknown at time of data collection.

Pennsylvania--Other admissions: Type of admissions unknown at time of data collection. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. Other deaths: Includes deaths still under investigation. Escapee and AWOL prisoners: Excludes prisoners who absconded while residents of community-based facilities. Other race: The Pennsylvania "Hispanic" category.

Rhode Island--Rhode Island revised its Dec. 31, 1994 jurisdiction population because two persons serving sentences out-of-State were incorrectly reported as male instead of female. Rhode Island revised its Dec. 31, 1994 custody population by moving two men originally reported in the unsentenced category to the sentenced to more than 1 year category. Sentencing information, partially suspended sentences: Prisoners with partially suspended sentences (part served in prison, part served under probation) are included with the "Inmates with over 1 year maximum sentence" only when the prison portion of the sentence exceeded 12 months. As a result, the population and movement counts of "Inmates with over 1 year maximum sentence" are understated, and the counts of "Inmates with 1 year or less maximum sentence" are overstated. Other admissions: Returns from erroneous release. Other conditional releases: Court-ordered releases to drug/alcohol treatment programs. Other deaths: Death from a drug overdose. Other releases: An erroneous discharge. Jurisdiction and custody population, unsentenced inmates: Includes five males held on civil contempt of court for nonpayment of child support. Total inmate population: Jurisdiction and custody counts include inmates in prisons and jails, which form an integrated system in Rhode Island.

South Carolina--Other admissions and releases: Includes resentenced inmates. Other unconditional releases: Releases by court-order and remanded to the county jail to await retrial. Other conditional releases: Inmates released to the jurisdiction of the Department of Parole, Probation, and Pardon Services under the Emergency Powers Act. Illnesses/natural causes deaths: Includes some deaths caused by AIDS. South Carolina does not distinguish deaths caused by illnesses/natural causes and those related to HIV infection.

South Dakota--Unconditional releases, expirations of sentences: Includes commutations. Transfers to other jurisdictions: Transfers to Federal or other State facilities. Race: Numbers are estimates.

Tennessee--Sentencing information: Inmates with maximum sentences of 1 year are included with inmates with maximum sentences of more than 1 year. As a result, the population and movement counts of inmates with maximum sentences of more than 1 year are overstated. Parole violators with new sentences: May include some parole violators with no new sentences. Other conditional release violators with new sentences: Includes some probation and community correction program violators with no new sentences. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Conditional releases, paroles: May include a small number of supervised mandatory releases. Other conditional releases: Releases to community correction programs. Total jurisdiction population: Includes 1,843 males and 214 females housed in local facilities solely to ease prison crowding. Excludes 3,263 felons sentenced to serve their time in local facilities. Other race: Includes Hispanic inmates.

Texas--Jurisdiction population, sentencing information: Includes 3,812 males and 605 females with maximum sentences of 1 year or less who cannot be removed from the appropriate admissions and release categories. Admissions and releases: Numbers are estimates. Parole violators with and without new sentences: The Texas data system does not distinguish parole violators with new sentences from those without new sentences. Other conditional release violators with and without new sentences: The Texas data system does not distinguish other conditional release violators with new sentences from those without new sentences. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Other admissions and releases: Include "State jail" felons not counted in other admission and release categories. Race and ethnicity: Numbers are estimates. Other deaths: Cause unknown. Other race: Includes the Texas "Hispanic" category and all persons not specified as "white" or "black."

Utah--Other unconditional releases: Inmates whose sentences were terminated prior to expiration. State prison crowding: Includes some inmates housed in Texas county jails on contract.

Vermont--Parole violators with and without new sentences: May include other conditional release violators with or without new sentences. AWOL: May include some returns from appeal/bond. Total inmate population: Jurisdiction and custody counts include inmates in prisons and jails, which form an integrated system in Vermont. Excludes 317 inmates on intermediate sanctions. Race: Numbers are estimates.

Virginia--Virginia provided counts as of Jan. 1, 1996. Other unconditional releases: Administrative releases and some commutations. Conditional releases, supervised mandatory releases and paroles: Releases to detainer and transfers to other jurisdictions. Other releases: Inmates released to appeal/bond and other administrative releases. Other race: Includes persons of Hispanic origin and all other persons whose race is unspecified.

Washington--Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category.

Other unconditional releases: Vacated sentences. Total population, jurisdiction and custody: Most inmates with a maximum sentence of 1 year or less are housed in county jails. Other race: Inmates of mixed racial origin.

West Virginia--West Virginia revised its Dec. 31, 1994 jurisdiction count. Jurisdiction population, unsentenced: Includes unsentenced inmates who were previously included in inmates with more than 1 year maximum sentence.

Wisconsin--Admissions and releases counts: An undetermined number of admissions and releases are not reported; therefore, when admissions are added to the January 1 population and releases are subtracted, the total does not equal the December 31 population. Other admissions: Includes 893 males and 116 females temporarily returned to prison without a formal revocation; 79 males and 5 females returned pending revocation hearings; 4 males with no Wisconsin sentence; 11 male sex offenders held under Wisconsin's predator law; and 6 males and 1 female erroneously admitted. Other unconditional releases: Court-ordered releases. Other releases: Includes 645 males and 82 females returned to the community after being held without formal revocations; 2 males with no Wisconsin sentence; 11 males and 3 females who were held pending revocation hearing; 8 males and 1 female erroneously admitted; and 8 males released by court order. Unsentenced inmates, jurisdiction and custody counts: Include inmates whose sentences were unknown at time of data collection.

Wyoming--New court commitments and unconditional releases, expirations of sentence: May include a small number of administrative turnovers (starts and expirations of consecutive sentences). Parole violators only, no new sentence: Include some parole violators with new sentences. Escapees and AWOL prisoners: Counted as a single category. Other race: The Wyoming "Hispanic" category.

Capital punishment explanatory notes

The statistics reported for capital punishment may differ from data collected by other organizations. The differences occur for a variety of reasons:

(1) Inmates under sentence of death are originally added to the National Prisoner Statistics (NPS) counts when they enter correctional facilities rather than when judges pronounce sentence.

(2) Following the year when prisoners are first counted, their admissions or releases as a result of court order are attributed to the year for the sentence or court order. For example, a prisoner sentenced in November 1993 entering prison custody in January 1994 would be counted as an admission in the 1994 report; the 1995 report would count him or her as being under sentence of death at yearend 1993. Similarly, a prisoner whose sentence is overturned in 1993 but who remains in the count until 1995 when the court's decision is reported would be subtracted from the 1993 and 1994 reports.

(3) NPS counts of persons under sentence of death are always for the last day of a calendar year and will differ from more recent counts.

Some figures shown for yearend 1994 are revised from those reported in Correctional Populations in the United States, 1994.

The revised figures include 26 inmates who either were reported late to the NPS program or were not in the custody of State correctional authorities at yearend 1994: Alabama (1), Arizona (1), Arkansas (1), California (12), Florida (4), Idaho (1), Ohio (1), Oklahoma (1), Oregon (1), Tennessee (1), and Texas (2). Eighteen inmates had sentences to death removed in 1994 but were not reported: Arizona (1), California (8), New Mexico (1), Pennsylvania (1), Tennessee (1), Texas (5), and Washington (1). The data for December 31, 1994 also include seven inmates in Florida who were listed erroneously as being removed from death row.

Survey methodology for probation and parole data

These data are based on yearend 1995 counts of persons on probation and parole and entries and exits occurring during the calendar year. The data were collected by the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics through a standard questionnaire mailed to the Nation's probation and parole agencies.

Counts of probationers include only adults who have been placed under the supervision of a probation agency as part of a court order, regardless of whether or not convicted. Both active and inactive supervision cases are included. The data exclude persons on bench, court, or summary probation who have not been placed under the supervision of a probation agency.

Counts of parolees include only adults who have been conditionally released to parole supervision, whether by a parole board decision or by mandatory conditional release.

Both active and inactive supervision cases are included. Parolees sentenced to incarceration for less than 1 year and those sentenced to 1 year or more are included.

For both probation and parole counts the following provisions apply:

(1) For interstate compacts, counts include a State's probationers and parolees sent to another State for supervision, but exclude probationers and parolees supervised for another State.

(2) For entries, individuals entering into the probation or parole system more than once during the year are counted as multiple entries.

(3) For exits, individuals exiting from the probation or parole system more than once during the year are counted as multiple exits.

Probation explanatory notes by jurisdiction

Because many States update their population counts, the Jan. 1, 1995 numbers may differ from those previously published for Dec. 31, 1994.

Federal prison system--"Other" offense type includes 2,085 petty offenses.

Alabama--Alabama has three reporting agencies: one State and two local. All data are estimated. Detailed data are not provided for the State and one local jurisdiction's entries and exits. The State did not provide detailed data for sex and race.

"Misdemeanor" includes an unspecified number of "driving while intoxicated or under the influence of alcohol."

Arizona--Arizona has two reporting agencies: one State and one local. The 1995 data are not comparable to prior years as they are reported more accurately than in previous reports. Detailed data are not provided for the State's entries. All data are estimated. "Misdemeanors" include an unknown number of probationers whose offense type is "Driving while intoxicated or under the influence of alcohol."

Arkansas--"Other" races include an unspecified number of Hispanic probationers and probationers of unknown race.

California--Detailed data are not provided for sex, race, and offense type.

Colorado--Colorado has nine reporting agencies: one State and eight local. "Other" race includes 6,502 Hispanic probationers of unknown race.

Connecticut--Detailed data are estimated for sex and race. "Other" race includes 8,044 Hispanic probationers of unknown race. "Driving while intoxicated or under the influence of alcohol" is estimated.

Delaware--All data are estimated. Detailed data are not provided for offense type.

District of Columbia--Data are not comparable to previous years because 1995 data include all programs (urban services, traffic and alcohol, diversion, civil protection orders, and fugitives). Data are estimated for January 1 population, entries, exits, and race.

Florida--Florida has 15 reporting agencies: 1 State and 14 local. "Other" race includes 2,497 Hispanic probationers of unknown race.

Georgia--Georgia has two reporting agencies: one State and one local. "Other" offense types include unreported cases, abandonment cases, and probationers with suspended sentences.

Hawaii--Detailed data are not provided for race. Detailed data are estimated for sex.

Idaho--Idaho has two reporting agencies: one State and one interstate compact agency. Interstate compact cases represent 11.5% of the Dec. 31, 1995 total. As reported, the interstate compact data are estimated by the agency. January 1 population is reported based on the Dec. 31, 1994 population counts. "Other" race includes 600 Hispanic probationers of unknown race. "Misdemeanors" include violent felonies that are reduced to a misdemeanor. "Driving while intoxicated or under the influence of alcohol" is a felony in Idaho; therefore, DWIs and DUIs are included with "felonies."

Illinois--Data are not comparable to previous years; 1995 data include inactive cases/administrative cases, intensive supervision program cases, and cases in the driving under the influence program. Detailed data are estimated for sex and race. "Other" offense type includes 2,394 traffic cases and 35,140 administrative cases.

Indiana--All data are estimated. Detailed data are not provided for sex and race.

Iowa--"Other" offense status includes 44 "simple" offenses.

Kansas--Data are not comparable to 1994 data; the 1994 data included between 6,000 and 7,000 juveniles. "Black" includes all nonwhites.

Kentucky--Detailed data are not provided for sex and race.

Louisiana--"Other" race includes probationers of an unspecified race and an unknown number of Latins of unspecified race.

Maine--Detailed data are not provided for race. Detailed data are estimated for offense type.

Massachusetts--Detailed data are not provided for sex and race.

Michigan--Michigan has 114 reporting agencies: 1 State and 113 local. "Other" race includes 98 Hispanic probationers of unknown race.

Minnesota--Data include interstate cases supervised in the State, but does not include Minnesota's offenders supervised in other States. Entries and exits include movements from one county to another.

Mississippi--Data do not include 7,233 inactive cases. Detailed data are estimated for entries, sex, and race.

Missouri--Missouri has two reporting agencies: one State and one local. All data are estimated. "Other" offense types include diversion, presentence probation, and 574 city ordinance violations.

Nebraska--All data are estimated. "Other" race includes 1,350 Hispanic probationers of unknown race.

Nevada--"Felony" includes an unspecified number of felony DWI probationers. "Misdemeanor" includes an unspecified number of misdemeanor DWI/DUI probationers.

New Hampshire--Detailed data are estimated for sex and race.

New Jersey--Detailed data are estimated for sex and race. Data are not comparable to previous years because 1995 data include cases that are placed on probation for driving under the influence and motor vehicle community service. "Other" race includes 16,811 Hispanic probationers of unknown race.

New Mexico--New Mexico has two reporting agencies: one State and one local. Detailed data were not provided for entries. Detailed data are estimated for sex, race, and offense type.

New York--"Other" offense types include interstate transfers, non-penal laws, and cases with missing data.

North Carolina--"Other" race includes probationers of unknown or unspecified race.

Ohio--Ohio has 52 separate reporting agencies: 1 State and 51 local. "Other" race includes 38 Hispanic probationers of unknown race.

Oklahoma--Oklahoma has three reporting agencies: one State and two local. "Other" race includes 934 Hispanic probationers of unknown race.

Oregon--"Other" race includes 2,691 Hispanic probationers of unknown race.

Pennsylvania--Detailed data are estimated for sex, race, and offense type. Total exits are estimated. "American Indian/Alaska Native" includes 942 probationers whose race is other than black or white.

Rhode Island--Detailed data are not provided for sex, race, and offense type.

South Carolina--"American Indian/Alaska Native" includes 305 probationers whose race is other than black or white. "Other" offense type includes unclassified crimes.

South Dakota--Data are reported for year beginning July 1, 1994 and ending June 30, 1995. Data do not include 11 absconders. Detailed data are not provided for sex and race. "Misdemeanors" include an unspecified number of DWI/DUI cases.

Tennessee--Tennessee has three reporting agencies: one State and two local. Detailed data are not reported for the State's entries and exits. "Other" race includes 228 Hispanic probationers of unknown race.

Texas--Data are reported for year beginning Sept. 1, 1994 and ending Aug. 31, 1995. Data may differ slightly from previous years because data prior to 1995 represent calendar years. Detailed data are estimated for sex, race, and offense type based on sampling. Detailed data for sex, race, and offense type exclude pretrial cases. "White" includes 146,953 Hispanic and other probationers of unknown race.

Vermont--Detailed data are estimated for race.

Virginia--All data are estimated.

Washington--Washington has 24 separate reporting agencies: 1 State and 23 local. "Other" races include 64 Hispanic probationers of unknown race.

West Virginia--West Virginia has two reporting agencies: one State and one interstate compact agency. Interstate compact cases represent 3% of West Virginia's Dec. 31, 1995 total. As reported, the interstate compact data are for year beginning July 1, 1994, and ending June 30, 1995. No detailed data are provided. The State's January 1 and December 31 populations are estimated. The State's entries and exits are unknown.

Wyoming--"Other" race includes 261 Hispanic probationers of unknown race.

Parole explanatory notes by jurisdiction

Because many States update their population counts, the Jan. 1, 1995 numbers may differ from those previously published for Dec. 31, 1994.

Federal--The decrease in persons under supervision in 1995 resulted from a review of the parole statistical database, which identified and closed case records that had been coded incorrectly.

Alabama--Alabama has two reporting agencies: one State and one local. All data are estimated. In addition the State did not provide detailed data on sex and race. Data exclude absconders and out-of-State cases.

Alaska--Data are estimated for total entries and the Dec. 31, 1995 population.

Arkansas--All data are estimated. "Other" race includes Cuban, European, North American, Filipino, Japanese, Mexican, and Vietnamese parolees who could not be placed into any other racial group for unspecified reasons.

California--California has two reporting agencies: Department of Corrections and the California Youth Authority. Reported data do not include 17,055 absconder cases and 2,764 cases supervised out of State. "Other" races include 35,838 Hispanic parolees of unknown race.

Colorado--Detailed data are estimated for sex and race. "Other" race includes 774 Hispanic parolees of unknown race.

Connecticut--"Other" race includes 342 Hispanic parolees of unknown race.

Delaware--All data are estimated.

Florida--The Dec. 31, 1995 population includes all post-prison releases.

Georgia--Detailed data are estimated for sex and race. Because of accounting procedures and record keeping, the January 1 count, plus entries, minus exits, does not equal December 31 count.

Hawaii--Detailed data are not provided for race.

Idaho--Idaho has two reporting agencies: the State and interstate compact agencies. The January 1 population is reported based on the Dec. 31, 1994 population count. "Other" race includes 90 Hispanic parolees of unknown race.

Illinois--Detailed data are estimated for sex and race. "Other" races include 2,219 Hispanic parolees of unknown race.

Indiana--Detailed data are not provided for sex and race.

Kansas--Data include all post-prison supervision. The Kansas sentencing guidelines act, with its determinate sentencing structure, became effective July 1, 1993. Previously, Kansas had indeterminate sentencing. As a result, a number of entries and exits to parole (as reported) involve offenders with "guidelines" or "new law" sentences (which have determinate periods of post-incarceration supervision). At this time, the State is unable to differentiate movements of "old law" and "new law" offenders. Absconders are not included in the January 1 count, December 31 count, sex, and race. Absconders are monitored as a group separate from the regular caseload.

Kentucky--Detailed data are not provided for sex and race.

Louisiana--"Other" race includes parolees of an unspecified race and an unknown number of Latinos.

Maine--Maine abolished parole in 1976. The data reported represent offenders convicted prior to 1976 and exclude absconders.

Massachusetts--Detailed data are estimated for Jan. 1 and Dec. 31, 1995 population counts. "Other" race includes 859 Hispanic parolees of unknown race.

Michigan--Because of improvements in case-tracking procedures, these data are not comparable to data of previous years.

Minnesota--"Other" race includes 96 Hispanic parolees of unknown race and an unspecified number of Asians.

Mississippi--Data do not include 907 inactive cases. Detailed data are estimated for race.

Missouri--All data are estimated.

Nevada--All data are estimated.

New Hampshire--Detailed data are estimated for sex and race.

New Mexico--Data do not include 241 absconders or out-of-State cases. Detailed data are estimated for sex and race. "Other" race includes an unspecified number of Asians and people from the Middle East.

New York--"Other" race includes 18,852 Hispanic parolees of unknown race.

North Carolina--"Other" race includes parolees of an unknown or unspecified race.

Ohio--Data are not comparable to 1994 parole data because 1994 data included compact cases supervised for another State. Detailed data are estimated for sex and race. "Other" race includes 129 Hispanic parolees of unknown race.

Oklahoma--"Other" race includes 96 Hispanic parolees of unknown race.

Oregon--"Other" race includes 1,786 Hispanic parolees of unknown race.

Pennsylvania--"Other" race includes 2,091 Hispanic parolees of unknown race. "Asian/Pacific Islander" includes an unspecified number of parolees whose race is other than white.

South Carolina--"Asian/Pacific Islander" includes an unspecified number of parolees whose race is other than white.

Texas--All data are estimated.

Vermont--Detailed data are estimated for race.

Virginia--All data are estimated.

Washington--All data are estimated. "Other" race includes offenders of mixed and unknown race.

West Virginia--West Virginia has two reporting agencies: the State and interstate compact agencies. Interstate compact cases represent 16% of West Virginia's Dec. 31, 1995 total. As reported, the interstate compact data are for year beginning July 1, 1994 and ending June 30, 1995.

Wyoming--"Other" race includes 27 Hispanic parolees of unknown race.

Census of State and Federal Adult Correctional Facilities

Explanatory notes

The 1995 Census of State and Federal Adult Correctional Facilities was the fifth enumeration of State institutions and the second of Federal institutions sponsored by the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics. Earlier censuses were completed in 1974, 1979, 1984, and 1990. The facility universe was developed from the Census of State and Federal Adult Correctional Facilities conducted in 1990. Each department of corrections was contacted to identify new facilities and facilities that had been closed since June 30, 1990. Telephone followups with data providers were carried out in the fall of 1995 and resulted in a final response rate of 100%.

Facilities were included in the census if they were staffed with Federal, State, local, or private employees; housed primarily State or Federal prisoners; were physically, functionally, and administratively separate from other facilities; and were operational on June 30, 1995. The census also included 110 private facilities under exclusive contract to State governments or to the Federal Bureau of Prisons to house prisoners. The Census included the following types of State and Federal adult correctional facilities: prisons; prison farms; reception, diagnostic and classification centers; road camps; forestry and conservation camps; youthful offender facilities (except in California); vocational training facilities; drug and alcohol treatment facilities; and State-operated local detention facilities in Alaska, Connecticut, Delaware, Hawaii, Rhode Island, and Vermont. Specifically excluded from the census were privately operated facilities that were not exclusively for State or Federal inmates; military facilities; Immigration and Naturalization Service facilities; Bureau of Indian Affairs facilities; facilities operated and administered by local government, including those housing State prisoners; facilities operated by the U.S. Marshals Service; and hospital wings and wards reserved for State prisoners.

Correctional facilities were classified as community-based if 50% or more of the residents were regularly permitted to leave, unaccompanied, to work or study. These facilities included halfway houses, restitution centers, and prerelease, work release, and study release centers. Correctional facilities in which less than 50% of the inmates regularly left the facility unaccompanied were classified as confinement institutions. Because the census was a complete enumeration, the results are not subject to sampling error.

Trend data explanatory notes

To estimate the total correctional populations in tables 6.1, 6.2, and 6.11, the four correctional populations are assumed to contain individuals with only one status at a time. This assumption may not be valid. Multiple correctional statuses may occur because (1) probation and parole agencies are not always notified of new arrests, jail entries, or prison admissions; (2) absconders on agency caseloads in one jurisdiction may actually be incarcerated in another jurisdiction; (3) individuals may be admitted to jail or prison before formal revocation hearings by a probation or parole agency.

By adding the number of persons on probation, on parole, in jail, and in prison, some persons may be counted more than once; consequently, the sum will be an overestimate of the total number of persons under correctional supervision at any one time. The magnitude of the overestimation is not known; however, data collected in previous BJS surveys of prison and jail inmates indicate that the number of inmates doublecounted may be small relative to the total population under correctional supervision. Results from the 1989 Survey of Inmates of Local Jails indicated that 28% of the jail inmates were on probation and 10% were on parole at the time of admission. Results from the 1991 Survey of Inmates in State Correctional Facilities indicated 23% of the State prisoners on probation and 22% on parole when entering prison.

If the survey results are applied to the total jail and prison populations in 1995, and if all of these inmates are assumed to have been doublecounted, then the total number of doublecounted inmates would be 635,000, or about 11.8% of the estimated correctional population. This is an extreme assumption. Somewhat lower estimates are generated if it is assumed that the survey figures should be applied only to those jail inmates who are unconvicted and to prisoners who are technical violators of parole or probation supervision. Under this assumption, the doublecount would be an estimated 215,000 inmates, or 4% of the total correctional population. Doublecounting may also include an unknown, but relatively small, number of persons on both probation and parole.

Military explanatory notes

In 1994, the U.S. Department of Defense Corrections Council established an annual military confinement report. The council, comprised of representatives from each branch of military service, adopted a standardized questionnaire with a common set of definitions. With the Corrections Council, the Bureau of Justice Statistics produced a series of tables that provide a unified profile of persons in the custody of U.S. military authorities. The annual confinement report provides yearend counts of persons in U.S. military confinement facilities inside and outside the continental United States, by branch of service, sex, race, and Hispanic origin, conviction status and sentence length, and offense. It also provides counts of the number of persons admitted to confinement and the number released during the calendar year, by branch of service, type of commitment, and type of release. The confinement report also includes the number of facilities and their design and rated capacities, by level. Data for 1994 and 1995 are incomplete. Information on Air Force confinement facilities (including the number and characteristics of prisoners held at yearend as well as those admitted or released during the year) was not available. Admission and release data in 1994 for Marine Corps facilities covered only the period October 1 to December 31. In future years, with the full participation of all military services, the annual confinement report will provide a complete enumeration of U.S. military confinement facilities, both inside and outside the continental United States.

Federal Justice Statistics Methodology and definitions of terms

Note: The following was excerpted from U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics, Compendium of Federal Justice Statistics, 1994, NCJ-163063 (Washington, DC: U.S. Department of Justice, 1997). Non-substantive editorial adaptations have been made.

Methodology

The data are from the Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) Federal Justice Statistics database. The database is constructed from source files provided by the Executive Office for U.S. Attorneys, the Administrative Office of the United States Courts (AO), the United States Sentencing Commission, and the Federal Bureau of Prisons. The AO also maintains data collected by the Pretrial Services Administration, the U.S. Court of Appeals, and data on the work of the U.S. Probation Service in the Federal Probation Supervision Information System.

Records in the Federal Justice Statistics database are matched according to a statistically weighted combination of names, other personal identifiers, dates of court appearances, types of offenses, and other relevant information contained in the files. Using the matched data files, it is possible to combine information about two or more stages of the processing of a criminal matter or case, from the prosecutor's decision of whether to file a criminal case, through adjudication, and, if the defendant is convicted, through prison and/or supervised release. Unless otherwise noted, data tables describe the fiscal year 1994.

The unit of analysis is a combination of a person (or corporation) and a matter or case. For example, if a single person is involved in three different criminal cases during the time period specified in the table, he or she is counted three times in the tabulation. Similarly, if a single criminal case involves a corporate defendant and four individual defendants, it is counted five times in the tabulation.

The unit of analysis for incarceration, probation, parole, or other supervised release is a person entering custody or supervision, or a person leaving custody or supervision. For example, a person convicted in two concurrent cases and committed once to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons in the indicated time period is counted as one admission to a term of incarceration. A person who terminates probation twice in the indicated time period, such as with a violation and again after reinstatement, is counted as two terminations of probation.

The offense classifications in the tables are based on the classification system used by the AO. Specific offenses in the AO classification are combined to form the BJS categories in the tables. These categories are designed to be as consistent as possible with BJS publications on State criminal justice systems. Offense categories for tables focusing on prisoners are based on combinations of offense designations used by the Bureau of Prisons. They are similar to the BJS categories but may not be directly comparable.

Where more than one offense is charged or adjudicated, the most serious offense, the one that may or did result in the most severe sentence, is used in the classification. Prisoners are classified according to the offense that bears the longest single incarceration sentence. The offense description may change as a case goes through the criminal justice process. Tables indicate whether charged or adjudicated offenses are used.

The availability of particular items of information is affected by the data source. Data on prosecutors' decisions prior to court filing are provided for cases investigated by U.S. attorneys, but not for those handled by other litigating divisions of the U.S. Department of Justice. Criminal Division cases enter the data base once they are filed in U.S. District Court, however. Many items of social and demographic information come from presence investigation records, supervision records, or sentencing records and are available only for arrested defendants who were convicted and/or began serving a sentence involving supervised release. (This particularly affects sex, race, ethnicity, and prior record information.)

Time served in prison is the number of months from the prisoner's arrival into jurisdiction of the Bureau of Prisons until first release from prison, plus any jail time served and credited. The calculation is the same as that currently used by the Bureau of Prisons. Because other publications may include different groups of prisoners, calculate time served differently, or use a different offense classification, these data may differ from estimates of time served in previous publications by the Bureau of Prisons or in publications based on other data sources.

These data are designed to permit the user to make valid comparisons of numbers within each table and to compare percentage rates across tables. The total numbers of subjects that are based on records linked between two files are generally less than the total number of records in either source file. Accordingly, comparisons of absolute numbers across two or more tables, or between these data and other data sources, are not necessarily valid.

Definitions of terms

Agriculture violation--violation of the Federal statutes on agriculture and conservation, for example, violations of the Agricultural Acts, Insecticide Act, and the Packers and Stockyards Act; also violation of laws concerning plant quarantine and the handling of animals pertaining to research (title 7 U.S.C. except sections on food stamps).

Antitrust--violation of Federal antitrust statutes, which aim to protect trade and commerce from unlawful restraints, price fixing, monopolies, and discrimination in pricing or in furnishing services or facilities.

Arson--willfully or maliciously setting, or attempting to set, fire to any property within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States.

Assault--intentionally inflicting, attempting or threatening to inflict bodily injury to anyone within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States or to any Government official, foreign official, official guest, internationally protected person, or any officer or employee of the United States designated in section 18 U.S.C. 1114; also certain violations of the Fair Housing Act of 1968.

Bail--the sum of money promised as a condition of release, to be paid if a released defendant defaults.

Bribery--offering or promising anything of value with intent to unlawfully influence a public official, bank employee, officer or employee of the U.S. Government, witness, or any common carrier as well as soliciting or accepting such an offer. Soliciting or receiving anything of value in consideration of aiding a person to obtain employment in the U.S. Government. Receiving or soliciting any remuneration, directly or indirectly, in cash or any kind in return for purchasing, ordering, leasing, or recommending to purchase any good, service, or facility.

Burglary--breaking and entering into another's property with intent to steal within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States; also including breaking and entering into any official bank, credit union, savings and loan institution, post office, vessel or steamboat assigned to the use of mail service, or personal property of the United States or breaking the seal or lock of any carrier facility containing interstate or foreign shipments of freight or express.

Collateral bond--an agreement made by a defendant as a condition of his or her pretrial release that requires the defendant to post property valued at the full bail amount as an assurance of his or her intention to appear at trial.

Conspiracy--an agreement by two or more persons to commit or to effect the commission of an unlawful act or to use unlawful means to accomplish an act that is not in itself unlawful; also any overt act in furtherance of the agreement. A person charged with conspiracy is classified under the substantive offense alleged.

Counterfeiting--falsely making, forging, or altering any obligation or security of the United States, foreign obligation or security, coin or bar stamped at any mint in the United States, money order issued by the Postal Service, domestic or foreign stamp, or seal of any department or agency of the United States. Passing, selling, attempting to pass or sell, or bringing into the United States any of the above falsely made articles. Making, selling, or possessing any plates or stones used for printing counterfeit obligations or securities of the United States, foreign obligations or securities, Government transportation requests, or postal stamps; or knowingly and intentionally trafficking in falsified labels affixed to phono records, motion pictures, or audio visual works.

Deposit bond--an agreement made by a defendant as a condition of his or her release that requires the defendant to post a fraction of the bail before he or she is released.

Detention--the legally authorized confinement of persons after arrest, whether before or during prosecution. Only those persons held 2 or more days are classified as detained.

Drug offenses--manufacture, import, export, distribution, or dispensing of a controlled substance (or counterfeit substance), or the possession of a controlled substance (or counterfeit substance) with intent to manufacture, import, export, distribute, or dispense. Also using any communication facilities which causes or facilitates a felony under title 21. Also furnishing of fraudulent or false information concerning prescriptions as well as any other unspecified drug-related offense.

Embezzlement--fraudulently appropriating property by a person to whom such property has been entrusted or into whose hands it has lawfully come where offense is committed by bank officers or employees; officers or employees of the Postal Service; officers of lending, credit, or insurance institutions; any officer or employee of a corporation or association engaged in commerce as a common carrier; court officers of the U.S. courts; or officers or employees of the United States. Stealing, selling, conveying, or disposing of any money, property, records, or thing of value to the United States or any department thereof.

Escape--departing or attempting to depart from the custody of a correctional institution; a judicial, correctional, or law enforcement officer; or a hospital where one is committed for drug abuse and drug dependency problems. Knowingly advising, aiding, assisting, or procuring the escape or attempted escape of any person from a correctional facility, an officer, or the above-mentioned hospital as well as concealing an escapee. Providing or attempting to provide to an inmate in prison a prohibited object or making, possessing, obtaining, or attempting to make or obtain a prohibited object. Instigating, assisting, attempting to cause, or causing any mutiny or riot at any Federal penal, detention, or correctional facility or conveying into any of these institutions any dangerous instrumentalities.

Failure to appear--willful absence from any court appointment.

Felony--a criminal offense punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding 1 year.

Financial conditions--monetary conditions upon which release of a defendant before trial is contingent. Includes deposit bond, surety bond, and collateral bond (see individual definitions).

Food and drug violations--violations of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, such as regulations for clean and sanitary movement of animals.

Forgery--falsely and with intent to defraud, making, counterfeiting, altering, or possessing with intent to pass off as genuine any U.S. Postal Service money order; post-marking stamp or impression; obligation or security of the United States; foreign obligation, security, or bank note; contractors' bond, bid, or public record; seal of a court or any department or agency of the U.S. Government; the signature of a judge or court officer; ships' papers; documents on entry of vessels; deed; power of attorney; customs matters; coin or bar; and so forth. Also making, possessing, selling, or printing plates or stones for counterfeiting obligations or securities.

Fraud--unlawfully depriving a person of his or her property or legal rights through intentional misrepresentation of fact or deceit other than forgery or counterfeiting. Includes violations of statutes pertaining to lending and credit institutions, the Postal Service, interstate wire, radio, television, computer, creditcard, veterans benefits, allotments, bankruptcy, marketing agreements, commodity credit, the Securities and Exchange Commission, railroad retirement, unemployment, Social Security, false personation, citizenship, passports, conspiracy, and claims and statements, excluding tax fraud. The category excludes fraud involving tax violations that are shown in a separate category under "Public-order, other offenses."

Gambling--transporting, manufacturing, selling, possessing, or using any gambling device in the District of Columbia or any possession of the United States or within Indian country or the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States. Also transporting gambling devices in the jurisdiction of the United States, (except under authority of the Federal Trade Commission or any State that has a law providing for their exemption from these provisions), transmitting wagering information in interstate or foreign commerce, interstate transporting of wagering paraphernalia, importing or transporting lottery tickets, or mailing lottery tickets or related matter.

Hispanic--ethnic category based on classification by reporting agency. Hispanic persons may be of any race.

Immigration offenses--offenses involving illegal entrance into the United States, illegally reentering after being deported, willfully failing to deport when so ordered, or willfully remaining beyond days allowed on conditional permit. Falsely representing oneself to be a citizen of the United States. Also bringing in or harboring any aliens not duly admitted by an immigration officer.

Incarceration--any sentence of confinement, including prison, jail, and other residential placements.

Kidnaping--unlawfully seizing any person, within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States, for ransom or reward, except in the case of a minor by a parent. Also receiving, possessing, or disposing of any money or other property that has been delivered as ransom or reward in connection with a kidnaping as well as conspiring to kidnap. This offense includes kidnaping or attempting to kidnap any Government official, the President of the United States, the President-elect, the Vice President, any foreign official, any official guest, or any internationally protected person.

Larceny--taking and carrying away with intent to steal any personal property of another. Stealing, possessing, converting to one's own use, or illegally selling or disposing of anything of value to the United States or any of its departments or agencies. Stealing anything of value from a bank, the Postal Service, or any interstate or Foreign shipments by carrier. Receiving or possessing stolen property or pirate property. Stealing or obtaining by fraud any funds, assets, or property that belongs to or is entrusted to the custody of an Indian tribal organization. This offense category excludes the transportation of stolen property.

Liquor violations--violations of Internal Revenue Service laws on liquor as well as violations of liquor laws not cited under these laws, such as dispensing or unlawfully possessing intoxicants in Indian country; transporting intoxicating liquors into any State, territory, district, or possession where sale is prohibited; shipping packages containing unmarked and unlabeled intoxicants; shipping liquor by C.O.D.; knowingly delivering a liquor shipment to someone other than to whom it has been consigned; and violating in any way the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

Mailing or transportation of obscene materials--knowingly using the mail for mailing obscene or crime-inciting matter. Also transporting for sale or distribution, importing, or transporting any obscene matter in interstate or foreign commerce.

Matters concluded--matters about which a final decision has been reached by a U.S. attorney. Includes matters filed as cases, matters declined after investigation, matters referred for disposition by U.S. magistrates, and matters otherwise terminated without reaching court.

Migratory birds offenses--taking, killing, or possessing migratory birds, or any part, nest, or egg thereof, in violation of Federal regulations or the transportation laws of the State, territory, or district from which the bird was taken. Misuse or nonuse of a migratory-bird hunting and conservation stamp.

Misdemeanor--a criminal offense punishable by a jail term not exceeding 1 year and any offenses specifically defined as a misdemeanor by the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts for the purposes of data collection. (This category includes offenses previously called minor offenses that were reclassified under the Federal Magistrates Act of 1979.)

Mixed sentence--a sentence requiring the convicted offender to serve a term of incarceration, followed by a term of probation. Unless otherwise noted, offenders receiving mixed sentences are included in both incarceration and probation categories.

Most serious offense--the offense with the greatest potential penalty. For Federal prisoners, the offense with the longest term of incarceration actually imposed.

Motor carrier violations--violations of the Federal statutes concerning the Motor Carrier Act.

Motor vehicle theft--interstate or foreign transporting, receiving, concealing, storing, bartering, selling, or disposing of any stolen motor vehicle or aircraft.

Murder--the unlawful killing of a human being with malice aforethought, either expressed or implied. Nonnegligent manslaughter is the unlawful killing of a human being without malice; includes committing or attempting to commit murder (first or second degree) or voluntary manslaughter within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States. Killing or attempting to kill any Government official, the President of the United States, the President-elect, the Vice President, any officers and employees of the United States, any foreign officials, any official guests, or any internationally protected persons. As applied to the owner or charterer of any steamboat or vessel, knowingly and willfully causing or allowing fraud, neglect, misconduct, or violation of any law resulting in loss of life.

National defense violations--violations of the national defense laws of the Military Selective Service Acts, the Defense Production Act of 1950, the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970 (which includes prices, rents, and wages), the Subversive Activities Control Act, alien registration, treason (including espionage, sabotage, sedition, and the Smith Act of 1940), curfew and restricted areas, exportation of war materials, trading with an enemy, illegal use of uniform, and any other violations of the Federal statutes concerning national defense.

Negligent manslaughter--causing the death of another, within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States by wanton or reckless disregard for human life. Also negligent manslaughter of any Government official, the President of the United States, the President-elect, the Vice President, any officers and employees of the United States, any foreign officials, and official guests, or any internationally protected persons. This offense category also includes misconduct, negligence, or inattention to duties by ship officers on a steamboat or vessel resulting in death to any person.

Offense--violation of U.S. criminal law. Where more than one offense is charged, the offense with the greatest potential penalty is reported.

Other property offenses--offenses that involve the destruction of property moving in interstate or foreign commerce in the possession of a common or contract carrier. The malicious destruction of Government property, or injury to U.S. postal property such as mailboxes or mailbags. Trespassing on timber and Government lands is also included in this category of offenses.

Other public-order offenses--violations of laws pertaining to bigamy; disorderly conduct on the U.S. Capitol grounds; civil disorder; and travel to incite riot. Included in "public-order, non-regulatory offenses."

Other regulatory offenses--violations of civil rights, election laws, the Communication Act of 1934 (including wire tapping and wire interception), customs laws (except narcotics and liquor), interstate commerce (Hot Oil Act, transportation or importation of prison-made goods, and the railroad and transportation acts), maritime and shipping laws, laws regarding stowaways, the Federal Boat Safety Act of 1971, U.S. postal laws (excluding injury to postal property), intimidation of witness laws, aircraft regulations, and any other regulatory offenses not listed above.

Other sex offenses--transporting, coercing, or enticing any individual (including minors) to go from one place to another in interstate or foreign commerce, in the District of Columbia, or in any territory or possession of the United States with the intent and purpose to engage in prostitution, or any sexual activity for which any person can be charged with a criminal offense.

Perjury--knowingly or willfully giving false evidence or swearing to false statements under oath or by any means procuring or instigating any person to commit perjury. Making any false material declarations under oath in any proceeding before or ancillary to any court or grand jury of the United States. This offense also includes any officers and employees of the Government listed under 13 U.S.C. 21-25 who willfully or knowingly furnish or cause to be furnished any false information or statement.

Personal recognizance--pretrial release condition in which the defendant promises to appear at trial and no financial conditions are required to be met.

Possession--acquiring a controlled substance by misrepresentation or fraud, attempting or conspiring to possess, or simple possession of a controlled substance in schedules I-V (as defined by 21 U.S.C. 812). Also possession of a controlled substance in schedule I or II or a narcotic drug in schedule III or IV on board a vessel of the United States or vessels within custom waters of the United States, or by any citizen of the United States on board a vessel. Possessing any punch, die, plate, stone, or any other thing designed to reproduce the label upon any drug or container is an offense under this category. Distributing a small amount of marijuana for no remuneration is treated as simple possession and, therefore, is included in this offense category.

Pretrial release--the release of a defendant from custody, for all or part of the time before or during prosecution. The defendant may be released either on personal recognizance, unsecured bond or on financial conditions. The category includes defendants released within 2 days after arrest and defendants who were initially detained but subsequently released after raising bail or having release conditions changed at a subsequent hearing.

Property offenses, fraudulent--property offenses involving the elements of deceit or intentional misrepresentation. Specifically includes embezzlement, fraud (excluding tax fraud), forgery, and counterfeiting.

Property offenses, non-fraudulent--offenses against property: burglary, larceny, motor vehicle theft, arson, transportation of stolen property, and other property offenses (destruction of property and trespassing). These offenses are termed "non-fraudulent" only for the purpose of distinguishing them from the category "property offenses, fraudulent," above.

Public-order, non-regulatory offenses--offenses concerning weapons; immigration; tax law violations (tax fraud); bribery; perjury; national defense; escape; racketeering and extortion; gambling; liquor; mailing or transporting of obscene materials; traffic; migratory birds; conspiracy, aiding and abetting, and jurisdictional offenses; and "other public-order offenses." These offenses are termed "non-regulatory" only for the purpose of distinguishing them from the category "public-order, regulatory offenses," below.

Public-order, regulatory offenses--violations of regulatory laws and regulations in agriculture, antitrust, labor law, food and drug, motor carrier, and other regulatory offenses that are not specifically listed in the category "public-order, non-regulatory offenses" above.

Racketeering and extortion--using interstate or foreign commerce or any facility in interstate or foreign commerce to aid racketeering enterprises such as arson, bribery, gambling, liquor, narcotics, prostitution, and extortionate credit transactions. For officers or employees of the United States, or anyone representing himself or herself as such, obtaining property or money from another, with his or her consent induced by actual or threatened force, violence, blackmail, or unlawful interference with employment or business. Transmitting by interstate commerce or through the mail any threat to injure the property, the person, or the reputation of the addressee or of another or to kidnap any person with intent to extort.

Rape--rape, assault with intent to commit rape, and carnal knowledge of a female under 16 who is not one's wife, within the territorial and special maritime jurisdictions of the United States. Also includes cases of sexual abuse, including abuse of a minor and Federal prisoners.

Robbery--taking anything of value from the person or presence of another by force or by intimidation, within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States. Also robbery of bank property, U.S. postal property, or personal property of the United States. Also assaulting or putting the life of any person in jeopardy by the use of a dangerous weapon while committing or attempting to commit such robbery.

Sentence--sanction imposed on a convicted offender. For sentences to incarceration, the maximum time the offender may be held in custody is reported.

Surety bond--an agreement by the defendant as a condition of his or her release that requires a third party (usually a bail bondsman) to promise to pay the full bail amount in the event that the defendant fails to appear.

Suspect--a person who is under investigation or interrogation as a likely perpetrator of a specific criminal offense.

Tax law violations--tax fraud offenses such as income tax fraud; evading or defeating tax; willful failure to file; fraudulently withholding an exemption certificate or failing to supply information; counterfeiting any stamps with intent to defraud the collection or payment of tax; willful failure to collect or pay tax; putting fraudulent or false statements on tax returns; failure to obey summons to produce any papers concerning taxes; preparers of returns disclosing or using any information for any purpose other than to assist in preparing returns; failing to furnish receipts for employees of tax withheld; failing to furnish information relating to certain trusts, annuity, and bond purchase plans; and not obtaining a license for a business that makes a profit from foreign items. Also included in this offense category are violations of excise and wagering tax laws and other laws from the Internal Revenue Service title.

Technical violation--failure to comply with any of the conditions of pretrial release, probation, or parole, excluding alleged new criminal activity. May result in revocation of release status. Examples of conditions that may be imposed and then violated include remaining within a specified jurisdiction, or appearing at specified intervals for drug tests.

Threats against the President--knowingly and willfully depositing in the mail, at any post office, or by any letter carrier a letter, paper, writing, print, missive, or document containing any threat to take the life of or to inflict bodily harm upon the President, Vice President, or any other officer in order of succession to the Presidency. Knowingly and willfully making such threats in any way to the above-named people.

Traffic offenses--driving while intoxicated or any moving or parking violations on Federal lands.

Trafficking--knowingly and intentionally importing or exporting any controlled substance in schedule I, II, III, IV, or V (as defined by 21 U.S.C. 812). Manufacturing, distributing, selling, or possessing with intent to manufacture, distribute, or sell a controlled substance or a counterfeit substance. Exporting any controlled substance in schedules I-V. Manufacturing or distributing a controlled substance in schedule I or II for purposes of unlawful importation. Making or distributing any punch, die, plate, stone, or any other thing designed to reproduce the label upon any drug or container or removing or obliterating the label or symbol of any drug or container. Knowingly opening, maintaining, or managing any place for the purpose of manufacturing, distributing, or using any controlled substance.

Transportation of stolen property--transporting, selling, or receiving stolen goods, stolen securities, stolen moneys, stolen cattle, fraudulent State tax stamps, or articles used in counterfeiting if the above articles or goods involve or constitute interstate or foreign commerce.

U.S. attorneys--all United States attorneys. Prosecutorial data come from the Central system and Central Charge Files of the Executive Office for U.S. Attorneys.

Unsecured bond--an agreement by the defendant as a condition of his or her release in which the defendant agrees to pay full bond amount in the event of nonappearance at trial, but is not required to post security as a condition to release.

Violation (of pretrial release, probation, or parole)--allegation of either a new crime or a technical violation while on pretrial release, probation, or parole.

Violent offenses--threatening, attempting, or actually using physical force against a person. Includes murder and nonnegligent manslaughter, negligent manslaughter, assault, robbery, rape, other sex offenses (some of which may be nonviolent), kidnapping, and threats against the President. (See specific offenses.)

Weapons violations--violations of any of the provisions of sections 922 and 923 of title 18 concerning the manufacturing, importing, possessing, receiving, and licensing of firearms and ammunition. Manufacturing, selling, possessing, or transporting (within any territory or possession of the United States, within Indian country, or within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States) any switchblade knife; or making, receiving, possessing, or transporting a firearm not registered in the National Firearms Registration Transfer Record. Engaging in importing, manufacturing, or dealing in firearms if not registered with the secretary in the Internal Revenue Service District in which the business is conducted or not having paid a special occupational tax. In addition, this code covers cases where in a crime of violence or drug trafficking enhanced punishment is handed down when committed with a deadly weapon.

National Jail Census and Annual Survey of Jails Methodology and survey sampling procedures

Note: The following information was excerpted from the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics, Jails and Jail Inmates 1993-94, Bulletin NCJ-151651 (Washington, DC: U.S. Department of Justice, April 1995), pp. 14-16; Prison and Jail Inmates at Midyear 1996, Bulletin NCJ-162843 (Washington, DC: U.S. Department of Justice, January 1997), pp. 9, 10; and information provided by the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics. Non-substantive editorial adaptations have been made.

Methodology

National Jail Census

The National Jail Census is taken every 5 years and is conducted for the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) by the U.S. Bureau of the Census. Data are presented for censuses conducted in 1983, 1988, and 1993. For 1983, questionnaires were mailed to all (3,358) locally administered jails in the Nation. For 1988, questionnaires were mailed to 3,448 locally administered jails. Forty-four jails were added to the initial mailing and 176 were deleted, yielding a final count of 3,316 facilities for 1988. Through the use of various followup procedures, a response rate of 99% was achieved for 1983, and 100% for 1988.

The most recent census, conducted in 1993, included all locally administered confinement facilities (3,287) that hold inmates beyond arraignment and are staffed by municipal or county employees. The census also included 17 jails that were privately operated under contract for local governments and 7 facilities maintained by the Federal Bureau of Prisons and functioning as jails.

Excluded from the census were temporary holding facilities, such as drunk tanks and police lockups, that do not hold persons after being formally charged in court (usually within 72 hours of arrest). Also excluded were State-operated facilities in Alaska, Connecticut, Delaware, Hawaii, Rhode Island, and Vermont, which have combined jail-prison systems. Five locally operated jails in Alaska were included.

The mailing list used for the census was derived from the National Justice Agency List maintained by the U.S. Bureau of the Census for BJS. The census forms were mailed to 3,506 facilities on June 22, 1993. Twenty-eight jails were added to the initial mailing and 230 were deleted, resulting in a total of 3,304 facilities.

After extensive followup, including additional mail requests and repeated telephone contacts, all jails (except those in one jurisdiction) provided data for four critical data items--number of inmates, average daily population, rated capacity, and sex of inmates housed. Data on these four items for the nonresponding jails were imputed based on data reported in the 1994 Annual Survey of Jails.

Completed forms with data for all or most items were received for 2,981 jails, resulting in a 90% response rate. These reporting jails housed 93% of all local jail inmates on June 30, 1993. Because there was nonresponse and incomplete data on all census items except the four critical items, national totals had to be estimated. Readers interested in the estimation procedures employed should consult the original Source (Source, Jails and Jail Inmates 1993-94).

Annual Survey of Jails

In each of the 4 years between the full censuses, a survey of jails is conducted to estimate baseline characteristics of the Nation's jails and inmates housed in the jails. Data from the Annual Survey of Jails are presented for 1984-87, 1989-92, and 1994-96. The reference date for each of these surveys was June 30, except 1990 when the reference date was June 29, and 1991 and 1996 when it was June 28. All surveys prior to the 1994 survey were based on all jails in jurisdictions with 100 or more jail inmates and a stratified random sample of jurisdictions with an average daily population of less than 100 inmates. For 1984, 1,164 jails in 893 jurisdictions were included; in 1985, 1,142 jails in 874 jurisdictions were included; in 1986, 1,137 jails in 868 jurisdictions were included; in 1987, 1,135 jails in 866 jurisdictions were included; in 1989, 1,128 jails in 809 jurisdictions were included; in 1990, 1,135 jails in 804 jurisdictions were included; in 1991, 1,124 jails in 799 jurisdictions were included; and in 1992, 1,113 jails in 795 jurisdictions were included.

A new sample of jail jurisdictions was selected for the 1994-96 surveys using information from the 1993 census. A jurisdiction is a county (parish in Louisiana) or municipal government that administers one or more local jails. The 1996 sample included all jails in 795 selected jail jurisdictions and 25 multi-jurisdiction jails. A multijurisdiction jail is one in which two or more jurisdictions have a formal agreement to operate the facility.

In drawing the samples for 1994-96, jail jurisdictions were first stratified into two groups: single jurisdiction jails and multijurisdiction jails. All of the multijurisdiction jails were included in the survey. The remaining jurisdictions were then further stratified into two groups: jurisdictions with jails authorized to hold juveniles and jurisdictions with jails holding only adults. Jurisdictions were then selected based on the average daily population in the 1993 census. In 1996, all jails in 204 jurisdictions were automatically included if the jurisdiction held juveniles and had an average daily population of 250 or more inmates in 1993 or if they held only adults and had an average population of 500 or more. The other jurisdictions (591) were then selected based on stratified probability sampling.

Data were obtained by mailed questionnaires. After followup phone calls to nonrespondents, the response rate for the survey was 100%.

Sampling error

Survey estimates have an associated sampling error because jurisdictions with smaller average daily populations were sampled for the survey. Estimates based on the sample survey may differ somewhat from the results of conducting a complete census. Different samples could yield somewhat different results. Standard error is a measure of the variation among the estimates from all possible samples, stating the precision with which an estimate from a particular sample approximates the average of all possible samples. The estimated relative sampling error for the total number of persons under the jurisdiction of jail authorities of 591,469 on June 28, 1996, was 0.80%; for persons held in the custody of jail authorities of 518,492, was 0.59%. Readers interested in standard error estimates should consult the original Source (Source, Prison and Jail Inmates at Midyear 1996).

Measures of population

Two measures of inmate population are used: the average daily population for the year ending June 30 and the inmate count on June 30 of each year. The average daily population balances out any extraordinary events that may render atypical the inmate count on June 30. The June 30 count provides data on characteristics of inmates, such as race, Hispanic origin, and age, that may not be available on an annual basis.

For the first time in 1995 the Annual Survey of Jails obtained separate counts of the total number of offenders under jail jurisdiction, those held in jail facilities, and those supervised outside of jail facilities. Previous surveys and censuses included a small but unknown number of offenders under community supervision. To estimate the percent change from 1994 to 1995 in the jail population, the 1995 survey included a count of inmates held at midyear 1994.

In the 1996 survey the number of persons supervised outside a jail facility included for the first time persons under drug, alcohol, mental health, or other medical treatment. Comparison with 1995 estimates should exclude these persons.

Juveniles

State statutes and judicial practices allow juveniles to be incarcerated in adult jails under a variety of circumstances. Because of differing statutes and practices, however, accurate and comparable data on juveniles are difficult to collect. Beginning in 1994 the Annual Survey of Jails provided estimates of the total number of jail inmates under age 18, the number held as adults, and the number held as juveniles. New sampling procedures also were introduced in 1994 to minimize the standard errors of these estimates. By stratifying jurisdictions based on the authority to house juveniles, the precision of the juvenile counts were improved.
